Settlement With Stockholders Of Corporations Is Planned

TO BUILD UP ELECTRIC LINES

Moore's Contract With Tevis and Hanford Filed

$2,410,000 of Common Stock to Be Used in Financing Land

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The details of the contract entered into between George G. Moore, of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, with W. S. Tevis and R. G. Hanford were made public today.

They show that every effort was made on the part of Moore to arrange for settling with the stockholders and bond owners of the various subsidiary corporations of the United Properties Company before an agreement for a sale was consummated.

Moore, who, with his financial backers, expects to be able to rehabilitate the Oakland traction lines and the Key Route system, has also agreed to place large sums of money at the disposal of Tevis and Hanford for taking charge of their land projects in Alameda county. These include the holdings of the Bay City Water Company and in the power companies which form a portion of the United Properties Company.

In the event that Moore is not able to raise the funds he is to turn over to Tevis and Hanford $2,410,000 worth of stock in the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways. This stock will be used to protect the bond certificate and share holders of these companies.

In this connection the stipulation filed with the commission reads:

It is agreed that, first, to promote the financing of said land for the said purposes and to aid in obtaining financial support to carry out said plans, the said Moore shall use of the common stock acquired by his purchase from various parties, as heretofore provided, of the common stock of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways at par, $2,410,000; however, should the said Moore elect not to procure the proper financing of said land to an amount not less than $650,000 cash, as provided hereinafter, then, and in that event, and in that event only, the said $2,410,000 par value of stock shall be given to the said Hanford and Tevis for the purpose of aiding them in the liquidation of said bond certificate and other securities of the United Properties Company of California, and to further aid such liquidation.

"Second—The party of the second part does hereby confer on the parties of the first part an option to buy $1,500,000, par value, of preferred shares of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, on the terms, in the proportions, and on the condition stated in the agreement between the Realty Syndicate, as party of the first part, and George G. Moore, as party of the second part, and Mercantile Trust Company, as party of the third part, copy of which agreement is attached hereto; provided, however, the parties of the first part shall notify the party of the second part of their election to exercise said option not later than December 1, 1915.

"Third—The parties of the first part, in accordance with the certain agreement of the parties hereto, of even date, shall settle with the different shareholders of the subsidiary corporation, who own bonds and debentures of said United Properties Company of California, in the best and most expeditious manner possible, returning the shares, bonds and debentures to the said United Properties Company of California, and entirely segregate the subsidiary companies.

"Fourth—For the special purpose of liquidating the certificate and other security holders of the East Shore and Suburban Railway Company, the party of the second part will cause to be assigned to the party of the first part by said San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways $1,000,000 par value of the B preferred shares of said San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways."

CONTRACT IN BRIEF

MAIN PROVISIONS

George G. Moore to use $2,410,000 of the common stock of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways in an effort to finance the land holdings obtained by Tevis and Hanford in Alameda county. If Moore fails in financing these properties, Tevis and Hanford are to have the use of the $2,410,000 of common stock for the benefit of the bond certificate holders of the United Properties.

Tevis and Hanford are given right, up to December 1, 1915, to exercise option on purchase of 20 per cent of preferred stock of San Francisco-Oakland Termial Railays.

LIGHTNING HITS BIG BALLOON

Pilot of "Million Population Club" Hurt; Fear for Others

PORTLAND, Ore., June 12.—A carrier pigeon arrived here at 12:45 p. m. with this message from the balloon Million Population Club:

"Balloon struck by lightning. Berry hurt. Come quick.

"(Signed) G. G. MORRISON."

The message did not say where the balloon, which was one of the four to ascend from here yesterday in a race under the auspices of the Aero Club of America, had descended to earth. Berry is Captain John Berry of St. Louis, pilot. George G. Morrison, his passenger, signed the message.

Officials here are absolutely at sea as to where to look for the missing balloon and its injured pilot. It is presumed the balloon came down somewhere in the craggy Cascade mountains, probably many miles from habitation.

The fact that the balloon, Uncle Sam, was driven to earth last night in a storm which wrecked it and endangered the lives of its two occupants led to a fear that some of the others have met with some disasters in the high mountains, where the danger of landing is much greater.

The prevailing winds were toward the southeast and it was thought possible that the three big gas bags may have successfully crossed the Cascade range during the night. A thinly settled plateau country would extend before the aeronauts, once they got across the Cascades. Each balloon carries a pilot and one passenger.

A little white carrier pigeon, one of the three which the balloon carried arrived at its home here today wet and bedraggled and with the hastily scrawled note fastened to its leg.

Anxiety for the two other balloons still unheard from increased with the report of the Million Population Club disaster. The storm last night was general, and there is doubt if any of the balloons escaped it. Every point for 200 miles southeast of here is being requested to send searching parties into the densely forested mountains.

GEM THIEF CAUGHT

Clerk Who Stole Diamonds Worth $30,000 Arrested While Escaping.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Joseph Fischler, who played hide and seek in Niles Canyon yesterday and was finally caught, disguised as a sailor, near Boulder Creek, last night, is on his way to this city to answer to a charge of robbery. Detective Sergeant Jack Dolan and Harry Cook left here on the early train this morning to bring him back and he will be immediately booked on the warrant issued by Police Judge Deasy and sworn to by Albert S. Samuels, whose confidential secretary he was. Fischler stole diamonds worth $30,000 from his employer. A portion of the loot was found in San Francisco.

In a high-powered automobile Fischler was hurrying to Watsonville Junction to catch the Lark for Los Angeles when he was taken into custody.

William H. Pool, state park warden in the Big Basin, is directly responsible for [illegible] description of Fischler in a newspaper yesterday and thought he recognized him at Governor's Camp in the uniform of a

Merritt Sheds Blame for Delay

WITNESS IN U. C. CASE RETURNS

University Comptroller Appears at Wright Hearing

Says He Obtained Permission to Go East on Business

BERKELEY, June 12.—Ralph Palmer Merritt, comptroller of the University, returned this morning from the east indignant that the blame had been placed on him for the continued delays in the examination of Harry L. Wright, former clerk in his office, who is accused of embezzlement. Merritt declares that he left for the East after an expressed stipulation personally over the telephone with District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes.

"Why there should have been so much noise made about my leaving at this time," declared Merritt today, "I cannot imagine. It was understood, I suppose, that Wright was not immediately to be arrested, so at the direction of the university regents I purchased my ticket to go East to transact the business upon which they were sending me. At the last moment Hynes caused Wright's arrest. I cabled the District Attorney on the telephone, told him of my having purchased my ticket East and planned to leave at that time, May 20. Mr. Hynes told me that it would be all right and for me to go right ahead. Why, after that statement I should be blamed by his office for causing delay in the Wright examination, I cannot explain."

WRIGHT IN COURT.

Wright appeared before Judge Edgar for his preliminary examination at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A delay of half an hour in the calling of the case was made at the request of Wright's attorney. Comptroller Merritt, Secretary of the Regents Victor H. Henderson, and Percy Goode, who has been auditing Wright's books, were among the witnesses on hand to testify. Wright was accompanied into court by Mrs. Wright and by his brother-in-law, and his attorney, Lin S. Church.

Merritt left for the East on May 20, the day of Wright's arrest. His trip was made, he declares, at the direction of the Regents in connection with the university hospital and other details of university administration. He was in New York and several other Eastern cities and had reached Chicago when he learned of the confusion in connection with the Wright case that was attending his absence. He left Chicago immediately, arriving here this morning.

Water Companies of County Will Merge

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The Hayward Water Company operating in the town of Hayward, Alameda county, and the San Lorenzo Water Company, are about to be merged.

In order to consummate the deal an application was made by the Hayward Water Company to the State Railroad Commission this morning asking for authority to acquire the property of the San Lorenzo concern.

In order to carry out the transaction and provide working capital to complete it, the Hayward Water Company desires to issue 1401 shares of its capital stock.

EARLY VOTE ON BONDS IS BIG

Poll Indicates Unusual Interest in Outcome of Election

Auditorium Proponents Wage Busy Campaign for Ballots

A vote that, according to return in the hands of the Auditorium Campaign Committee this afternoon, indicated an increase throughout the city of more than 50 per cent over the last auditorium election, is being cast today on the auditorium bond project. The morning vote in many precincts was extremely heavy. Some precincts have already polled virtually their whole registration.

Voting is exceptionally heavy in the Grand Avenue Heights district, and Fruitvale is polling an average vote. West Oakland is polling a slight increase over the last election, according to figures taken up to 1 o'clock. The Santa Fe district and North Oakland both polled heavy votes. Santa Fe this afternoon showing 60 per cent of the registration. The Elmhurst vote this morning was slightly in excess of the last auditorium vote.

In twelve precincts east of Lake Merritt 20 per cent of the total vote had been cast by 10 o'clock this morning, which was an indication of a heavy poll.

In those precincts in which the predominant sentiment is against the bonds the voting was lighter than elsewhere. This was regarded as favorable augury for the bonds.

HEAVY EARLY VOTE.

"Have you voted for the Auditorium."

[illegible] acquaintances greeted each other on the street, and the almost invariable reply was:

"Of course I have."

The persistent campaign which has been waged for the last two weeks through public meetings, publicity and personal appeals has had its effect in arousing civic pride, and the vote which is being cast promises to be the heaviest ever recorded in Oakland on a non-political question.

Bright and early the Auditorium Army was at work under the orders of William F. Hobbs, commander-in-chief, with the majors marshaling their forces in the wards and the captains of precincts detailing their men for sentry duty near the polls or scouting for voters. Headquarters were established at the Chamber of Commerce and the Commercial Club, where the call of the telephone was incessant, reports coming in from the workers and orders going out for new maneuvers.

AFTER STAY-AT-HOMES.

Automobiles were busy in every precinct collecting voters who resided at some distance from the polling booths and those who would not have otherwise been able to vote because of infirmities. Lists of registered voters were in the hands of each precinct captain and his lieutenants, and as rapidly as the votes were cast, the names were checked on the rolls. Other workers kept the telephones busy, reminding voters that their ballots were needed to complete the Auditorium. Whenever a voter showed indifference or reluctance to make the journey to the polls, a soldier of the army was at once dispatched to the resi-

FLEES FROM MARRIAGE TRAMPS CITY FOR WORK

MISS MADELINE ERAM, MISSING LOS ANGELES HEIRESS, WHO WAS FOUND IN SAN FRANCISCO LAST NIGHT.

'LIFT LID,' REQUEST THEN BEGS ASYLUM

Merchants Lay Their Petition Before Mayor at Audience.

And Declares She Will Carve Career on Operatic Stage.

With a request that the "lid be pried up a wee bit" as the motif, a conference of over an hour and a half was held behind closed doors in Mayor Mott's chambers today between the Mayor and a group of merchants headed by Edwin Stearns, secretary of the Downtown Association. It was explained by those who had attended the closed-door session that nothing was to be said concerning what occurred at the conference.

"These men asked to have a conference with me," explained Mayor Mott. "They wanted to confer concerning business conditions in Oakland. No conclusions were reached. The matter was merely an informal discussion."

"I was asked by Mayor Mott to invite these men to a conference," said Edwin Stearns. "There are twenty-nine stores vacant in Broadway, between Seventh and Eleventh streets that were not vacant several months ago. We had no definite program, but we wanted to discuss the matter."

"Business has been hurt by drastic measures," explained the merchants to Mayor Mott. "We are losing ground. Business is being driven to San Francisco. "Oakland has grown beyond the village stage, and there are certain things in the way of freedom that go with a city. We do not ask anything that will be detrimental to the morality or good name of the city. We would be the first to preserve these. But we feel that the matter of suppression has been carried out a little too drastically."

Wilson to Attend Reunion of Class

WASHINGTON, June 12. — President Wilson will leave Washington tomorrow at 8 a. m. for Princeton, N. J., to attend the reunion of the class of '79, of which he is a member.

Following a search of Oakland, San Francisco and other bay cities, when the police last night received tidings that Madeline Bram, missing Los Angeles heiress, was reported to be in this region, the girl was located last night. She was safe at Rockhurst Center, a social settlement at 130 McAllister street, San Francisco, and under the care of Mrs. Mindora Berry Goodwin, one of the officers of the institution. That she wanted to see the world, and dreamed of becoming an opera singer and making her own way, and that she objected to a lover favored by her stepmother, was the girl's explanation of her flight from Los Angeles, which gave rise to fears of kidnapping and set the police of five cities on what for a time looked like a second Dorothy Arnold mystery.

The girl's story is simple. Fleeing from the home of her stepmother, a wealthy Los Angeles woman, she boarded a train for San Francisco. Here, she says, she "became afraid." While Los Angeles was searching frantically for the girl, she was moving from hotel to hotel, seeking a proper home. Finally she saw an advertisement of the social settlement and went there, giving an assumed name. Last night she told her identity.

OLD RECOLLECTION LURES.

"It was a whim," she declared [illegible] "I got to thinking that there must be more for me waiting out in the world than I found at the home of my stepmother. I remembered San Francisco dimly, and made up my

Practical Declaration of Hostilities Uttered by Greek Premier

Brutality to Hellenese Subjects Causes Indignation

LONDON, June 12.—An official dispatch from Mitylene, an island off the coast of Asia Minor, says that Turkish regulars, with machine guns and a force of Bashi-Bazouks, today commenced an attack on the town of Aivalik, on the coast of the mainland. As the town is inhabited by 25,000 Greeks a massacre is feared.

The threat of another Greece-Turkey war did not come as a surprise to diplomats here today. It was pointed out that events in the near east during recent months had been kindling the strongest animosities between the two peoples.

Greece accuses Turkey of the wholesale expulsion, with great cruelties, of Greek Christians from the province of Thrace, while Turkey accuses Greece of oppressing former Turkish subjects in the region of Saloniki, which was taken by the Greeks in the recent Balkan war.

An Exchange Telegraph Company's dispatch from Athens today stated that the Greek foreign minister informed representatives of European powers that although his government desired peace, it could no longer remain indifferent to the continued expulsions of Greeks from Thrace.

Grand Officers, Amendments and Next Meeting Place on Ballot.

Pressure of routine and extraordinary business matters before the Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West yesterday afternoon postponed the election of officers which had been scheduled for that time, and the delegates will make their choice today.

The result of the vote will not be announced until some time after the actual balloting, as printed ballots are used containing the names of the twenty-four nominees, several constitutional amendments and a designation of the next meeting place of the convention. The tallying of these items on three hundred tickets will occupy a considerable time.

Last evening the delegates witnessed an exemplification of the ritual work of the order by a picked team selected from the combined eight parlors of Oakland under the direction of Mrs. Sarah Sanborn. This was followed by an informal reception in Scottish Rite Cathedral, which was attended by a large number of Native Daughters from Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda.

Nervously exhausted by the strain of the convention work, Mrs. Carrie Roesch Durham, past grand president of the order, was overcome by faintness yesterday afternoon during the session of the grand parlor and was removed to her apartments in the Hotel Oakland by automobile. Her indisposition was only temporary and she was able to attend the meetings of the convention today. Mrs. Durham has been in attendance at every one of the twenty-eight conventions of the Native Daughters.

Tomorrow morning the delegates will [illegible] ing and diversion and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon will leave on the steamer Piedmont for the grounds of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, where they will [illegible] the points of the directors on a tour of the various buildings.

tilities was uttered today by Premier Venizelos in the Chamber of Deputies. He was speaking on the treatment of Greek subjects in Turkey.

The premier's attitude showed that the tension between Greece and Turkey was near the breaking point and that the danger of war was imminent. M. Venizeles obviously found it difficult to restrain his language when he spoke of the way in which the Turks had treated his fellow countrymen.

"I do not wish to allow to escape me words which cannot be recalled. But I should fail in my duty if I did not inform the chamber of deputies that the situation has become grave—even very grave," he said. "If a stop is not put to these conditions the Hellenic government will be joining in the lamentations of unhappy refugees."

The Greek government today sent a vigorous note to Turkey, demanding the cessation of the persecution of the Greeks in Turkey and the repair of damage caused to them and their interests.

Gigantic Steamer Goes Through Locks

COLON, June 12.—The steamer Ancon, which is about 9000 tons, passed through the Gatun locks yesterday to Gatun lake. She made the round trip, passing out to the Atlantic in one hour and fifty-three minutes. The two electric engines on each side handled the steamer with ease. The Aancon is the biggest ship plying on the isthmus.

ONE-FIFTH TO LAWYER IS REASONABLE AS FEE

That 20 per cent of the amount involved is a reasonable fee for an attorney to charge in settling up an estate, is the opinion of Attorney M. C. Chapman who qualified as an expert yesterday afternoon in the suit brought by Attorney L. E. Phillips to collect fees from Flavel L. Logan, one of the heirs in the $60,000 estate of the late N. Z. Woodward.

Attorney Chapman took the witness-stand for the plaintiff and for more than an hour listened to the reciting of a hypothetical question by Attorney Lin S. Church. Attorney Phillips is suing for 15 per cent fees. This charge was reasonable, according to Attorney Chapman.

After Attorney Phillips had done considerable work in settling up the estate to the advantage of the heirs, he was supplanted by Attorney J. W. Dignan, he explained, and now contends that under the statutes he is entitled to his entire fee on the grounds that there was no legitimate reason for his discharge.

RUNAWAY HEIRESS WANTS 'CAREER'

'I Learned to Sing in Germany' She Tells Her Protectors.

mind to leave. I remembered that I was happy there as a child.

"It was only after I got there that things began to seem hard. I thought surely I could support myself by singing, for I heard of girls getting into opera and making fortunes. It is my dream to be a singer."

The girl told how she arrived in San Francisco with only a few dollars, and how she scanned the "Help Wanted" columns for an opening. She has spent every day since Thursday in weary tramps for work. During the perusals of these want ads she discovered the social center announcement, and went there.

"The men in the hotels and on the streets looked at me in an off-way, and I was afraid," she declared. "I had to go somewhere. I gave a false name, for I was afraid tht I might be sent back to Los Angeles.

NO OUTCAST GIRL.

"It was evident," said Mrs. Berry, "that this was not the kind of girl to send to the Crittenden Home. We therefore found a quiet home for her on Grove street, and she has been staying there, while we looked out for her."

The girl's voice has brought her success already. She was taken to the county jail, where she sang for the prisoners, and has also been heard in churches and other charity entertainments in which the workers of the settlement are interested.

The girl, according to officers of the home, declared that she was afraid she might be forced to marry a friend of her stepmother's.

"She has told me," her protector added, "all the story of her life. The girl lived with her stepmother, Mrs. Ada Bram, at 1249 West Thirty-sixth street, Los Angeles. At the same house lived a man who is supposed to be the son of Mrs. Bram. The girl says that this man is not the son of her stepmother, and that he was partly responsible for making her run away. The man, who is nearly twice the girl's age, wanted to marry her, and the stepmother was favoring his suit.

FEARS SUITOR.

"And I simply can't bear the sight of him,' the girl chimed in. "He makes me afraid."

"She has reason for that fear and dislike," her protector explained. "Years ago when she was little more than a child, she has told me, the man made advances to her. Ever since then she has lived in dread of him.

"Her's is a remarkable story. She doesn't even know her own name. Whether or not she is an heiress she is not certain. She was put in the Bram woman's care and given her name when she was a child of three. For a long time she regarded the woman as her mother. It was only when she grew up and began to think for herself that she found out the relationship that existed."

MUST RETURN HOME.

Mrs. Ada Bram, stepmother of the girl, has made arrangements to send for the child at once. She has been nearly frantic ever since the girl's disappearance. She declares that she gratified the girl's every whim, and that this perhaps accounts for the child's running away when the notion struck her. Detectives have been reporting daily at the Bram home, 1249 West Thirty-sixth street, Los Angeles, since the child's disappearance.

The girl was well known in Los Angeles, and a familiar figure in the big seven-passenger automobile which her stepmother had purchased for her and in which she often rode about the city.

The man she names, who is virtually an adopted son of Mrs. Bram, and who Miss Bram declares desired to marry her, is Henry Scheer. He is nearly twice her age. It has been known for some time to friends of the family that the two were not on good terms.

The girl, on leaving last Wednesday, wrote a letter to her stepmother that assured her of her safety. This letter proved one of the clues to her whereabouts. Detectives refuse to divulge the contents of the note.

In the meantime the girl is being guarded by the settlement workers, awaiting word from the south.

SHE MUST "SING."

Madeline Bram, however, declared positively this morning that she would not go back to Los Angeles. She said that she believed she had never been legally adopted.

"I think my foster-mother merely took care of me," she said. "I do not believe she ever went to court to claim me as her own. Anway, I will fight to the last before I will go back to her. It was all a scheme to marry me of. I wouldn't stand for it.

"I have a voice and I have studied singing in Germany. I was there for two years and I know I will succeed if I can get a chance. I won't go back there and I think that the friends I have made here will rally to my support. I am hoping anyway, that I will be left to live my life alone. I love San Francisco and here is where I hope to begin a successful career."

To Annul Marriage Of Her Minor Son

Parental objection which interrupted the honeymoon of Wendell Ward Aydelotte, 17 years of age, and Miss Ruth Robinson, with whom he eloped to San Francisco on May 29th, has resulted in a suit for annulment of the marriage being filed in the Superior Court by Mrs. Minnie W. Aydelotte, a wealthy widow of 201 Athol avenue, mother of the groom. The suit is directed against the daughter-in-law and alleges that the groom was not of legal age and that he did not have permission to take a wife.

TOLLS BILL PASSES HOUSE

Senate Amendment Is Ratified Without Conference Formality

Measure Now Goes to the President for His Approval

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Without the formality of a conference, the House today, by a vote of 216 to 71, accepted the Senate's amendment to the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption and sent the bill to President Wilson.

An attempt, led by Representative Moss, Republican, of West Virginia, to substitute for the Senate amendment to the bill an affirmative declaration of the rights of the United States to discriminate in favor of its own ships, was defeated today in the House, 171 to 108.

Representative Glass of Virginia, Democrat, in a lively defense of the President before the House today, made a sensational attack on his own party leaders who opposed the repeal, though avoiding mentioning them by name.

"This proceeding is not ungrudging," Mr. Glass added. "It is asinine. Congress should legislate and quit talking shop. I repudiate those men who wrote the heresy of exemption into the Democratic platform."

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Democrat, said the Senate amendment was "not a compromise, but a straddle."

Republican Leader Mann announced his intention to support the Senate amendment, which, he said, "makes this whole long fight over the free tolls issue a draw, open for future deliberation and for future decision."

The repeal of Panama Canal tolls exemption for American coastwise shipping passed the Senate by a vote of 50 to 35.

HOW THEY VOTED.

The vote in favor of the bill follows:

Democrats—Bankhead, Bryan, Chilton, Clarke (Arkansas), Culberson, Fletcher, Gore, Hitchcock, Hughes, James, Johnson, Kern, Lea, Lee, Lewis, Martin, Myers, Overman, Owens, Pittman, Pomerene, Saulsbury, Shafroth, Sheppard, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Arizona), Smith (Georgia), Smith (Maryland), Smith (South Carolina), Stone, Swanson, Thompson, Thornton, West, White, Williams—37.

Republicans—Burton, Brandegee, Colt, Crawford, ronna, Kenyon, McCumber, McLean, Nelson, Norris, Root, Sterling, Sherman—13. Total 50.

The vote against the bill:

Democrats — Ashurst, Chamberlain, Lane, Martins, Newlands, O'Gorman, Ransdell, Reed, Vardaman, Thomas, Shields—11.

Republicans—Borah, Brady, Bristow, Burleigh, Catron, Clapp, Clark (Wyoming), Cummins, Dillingham, Dupont, Goff, Jones, Lafollette, Lippitt, Page, Perkins, Smith (Michigan), Smoot, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren, Weeks, Works—23.

Progressive—Poindexter. Total, 35.

VICTORY FOR WILSON.

The passage of the bill after a bitter struggle that has lasted for several months was regarded as another victory for President Wilson. Although thirteen Republicans came to the aid of the Democrats who voted for the bill on final pasage the president initiated the movement in his party for repeal and was behind him that many of the Democrats who voted "yes" lined up on the last test.

There has been no certain promise from the White House that the president will sign the bill with its qualifying amendment, but there has been no declaration that he will vote it and party leaders in the senate were practically certain that its approval as amended by the house will lead to the last favorable action by the president.

AUDITORIUM VOTE IS HEAVILY CAST

Balloting on Bonds Begins Early in All Parts of the City.

dence to present a personal appeal for the honor of the city.

The members of the army are working with a zeal that is contagious and inspiring.

"We are confident of winning the fight for the bonds," said Commander-in-Chief Hobbs this morning, "but we are not allowing our confidence to slacken our pace in the battle. We must get all the people out to vote, and we are doing our level best to accomplish this result. I'm too busy to talk now."

SENTIMENT IS DIFFERENT.

Expressions of opinion on the outcome of the election agree that there has been a most marked change in the sentiment of the people during the last three weeks. Where there was apathy, there is enthusiasm; where there was bitter opposition, there is a tendency to bury criticism under a common good will for the community. The citizens have come to a realization that the Auditorium must be completed at once to insure the many conventions that have been promised. Even the most rancorous opponents of the administration have come to see that the city would receive a lasting injury if the bonds were defeated.

Many meetings for the discussion of the bond issue marked the closing day of the publicity campaign yesterday. D. E. Perkins addressed the members of the Oakland Rotary Club at their regular luncheon in the Hotel Oakland, pointing out that the increased expense in the Auditorium was in part made necessary by the addition of a municipal theater to accommodate grand opera and choral societies and symphony concerts. Alexander T. Stewart, the well-known musician, also emphasized this point and urged the importance of the structure in the musical life of the city.

CLERGYMAN IS CHAMPION.

At the meeting of the Women's Democratic Club of Alameda county in the Hotel Oakland at two o'clock, Rev. William Keeney Towner presented the issue in favor of the bonds. A neighborhood meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Andrew H. Hayes, 3521 Emerson street, where Clifton E. Brooks and J. P. Montgomery addressed an assemblage of women.

Two mass meetings in East Oakland occupied the evening. One was held in Brotherhood Hall at Sixth avenue and East Seventh street, where Clifton E. Brooks and Anson Hilton made earnest appeals to the voters, and presented cogent arguments in a convincing manner. The meeting was marked with intense interest on the part of the auditors and a favorable sentiment. In Redmen's Hall on East Fourteenth street near Ninety-fourth avenue, W. E. Gibson, J. P. Montgomery and E. L. Van der Nailsens. In this district there has been a considerable adverse vote at the last election, but the speakers won many ballots for the bonds by the force of their logic and earnestness.

DIAMOND THIEF FISCHLER CAUGHT

sailor. When he learned that the blue-jacket had telephoned to Boulder Creek for an automobile, he communicated with Sheriff Howard Trafton. Together with Under Sheriff Richard Roundtree, the sheriff waited near Boulder Creek for the sailor to appear. When he arrived he claimed that his name was Gunst and that he was merely roaming around on shore leave.

Finally when his initials were shown on the back of his watch, he gave up his efforts to disguise his identity and confessed.

"I am Fischler all right and here is the grip with part of the jewelry," he said. "I was on my way to catch my train at Watsonville Junction and I was going from there to Los Angeles and from there to Arizona. I was going to lose myself and I hoped to make a clean getaway."

John Houston and his wife Corinne, accused of receiving stolen property, appeared before Police Judge Deasy today, but their cases were continued, owing to the fact that no disposition had yet been made of the Fischler charges. It was Mrs. Houston upon whom Fischler lavished some of the diamonds alleged to have been stolen from his employers.

SOLD WEDDING GIFTS TO RUN HOUSEHOLD

Mrs. Viola P. Stevenson of Berkeley told Superior Judge Donahue that she had been forced to sell some of her wedding presents in order to get enough money to run her house. After a hearing she was awarded $44 per month temporary alimony pending her suit for divorce against Will C. Stevenson. Her husband testified that he had turned over practically all of his money to his wife amounting to about $80 per month. The couple have a small child.

"I cannot understand how it is that a young couple like you two with a baby who needs you both appear here in court in a divorce action," said the Court.

HUBBY IMPUGNS TRESSES BLONDE

Dr. R. H. Gerber Takes Fling at Hair During Divorce Proceedings.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Declaring that his wife's hair was naturally dark and that the woman he married was a brunette, Dr. Rudolph H. Gerber interrupted the divorce proceedings in Superior Judge Graham's court this morning while Mrs. Dorothy Gerber, who is possessed of beautiful blonde tresses, was testifying.

"The woman I married had dark hair. This woman has light hair. She must have dyed it. I am not even sure that she is my wife."

"This is my natural hair. I will take it down and show it all if necessary. It is the same hair I have always had. This is another of hy husband's charges to humiliate me," replied Mrs. Gerber from the witness chair.

This is only one of repeated interruptions made by Dr. Gerber while his better half was trying to tell her story, and frequently Judge Graham was forced to admonish both parties to keep order. Mrs. Gerber is an opera singer and resides at 1631 Laguna street. She filed suit for a legal separation against her husband, an oculist, residing at the Steinhart apartments, 952 Sutter street, and asked for the custody of her 4-year-old daughter, Aneal. She accuses Dr. Gerber of ill-treating her and of attempting to kidnap their child. In answer to this the physician claims that it was Mrs. Gerber who did the kidnaping. He says she left their home in Berlin, bringing the child to this country and leaving him alone. Mrs. Gerber said she was forced to flee from Dr. Gerber because of his continued inhuman treatment, although he had made an agreement with her to be good to her and her child.

Judge Graham allowed Mrs. Gerber $60 a month pending the disposition of the case.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the litigants apeared before Superior Judge Coffey, where Dr. Gerber has begun suit to set aside his wife's appointment as the child's guardian.

The descent of the northern police station "flying squadron" upon autoists and motorcyclists in North Oakland has resulted in more caution on the part of the drivers. For the past week there has been a regular harvest of ordinance violators, but last night only three were arrested by the police. These were Walter Woodworth, Orville Lockwood and A. E. Wilson.

SEEK BIG TRUST IN LITTLE MELONS

Government Begins Search for Combination Controlling Canteloupe Crop.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The United States government yesterday began the search of a cantaloupe trust by summoning numerous commission merchants to testify before the grand jury relative to an alleged close control of the crop. The inquiry is directed against commission merchants in New York, Pittsburg, Chicago, Colorado and California, and may form the basis of action under the Sherman anti-trust laws.

The alleged offenders are said to be the two boards of control of the Eastern Canteloupe Exchange. As evidence of the activity of the exchange, investigators assert before it was formed in 1911 cantaloupes sold for $1.75 a case and that immediately after its organization the price advanced to $3.

Woods Are Full of Poison Ivy

First Get Your Blood Right—Then You're Safe

All country people, and city folks before taking to the woods should fortify their blood with S. S. S.

This famous blood purifier not only drives all poisons out of the system but puts the blood in a condition to resist the effects of poison ivy and other terrors that constantly beset us. You never can tell what a slight abrasion of the skin may lead to. A small scratch by barb wire or thorn will often open the way to serious trouble. Then there is the danger of impure water, of clogged bowels, of mineral poisons already in the system, of public towels and numerous other traps to set the blood on fire. Let S. S. S. purify your blood and if poisons have invaded the system begin S. S. S. at once and drive them out.

Get a bottle today of any druggist but don't accept anything claimed to be "just as good."

Beware of substitution. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 107 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for an illustrated book "What the Mirror Tells." It fully explains about skin diseases and is finely illustrated.

AMERICAN GIRL EXCELS IF NOT FAT AND LAZY

HERE ARE THREE SAMPLES OF THE AMERICAN BEAUTY—IN DIFFERENT TYPES. ARE GUILTY OF ANY OF THE FAULTS TOYE POINTS OUT? IS THE ENGLISH WRITER CORRECT?

Is she too fat?

Is she the laziest woman on earth?

Does she "make up?"

Does she wear ready-made clothes?

These are the crimes Francis Toye, noted English art critic, accuses the American woman of. He says she's the prettiest in the world—but—and here comes the long arraignment. The Upper Set is angry. The Four Hundred are scandalized, and Charles Dana Gibson, Harrison Fisher and the other inventors of feminine pulchritude are peeved.

Here in part is what Toye said:

"There have always been certain cities famous for the beauty of their women, and most people who know New York will have no difficulty in deciding which one may especially claim the honor today. Not so much because of the beauty of the wealthier women, though you can see some of the loviest faces in the world among them. But—tell it not in Gath—many American ladies of fashion are too plump and soft-looking to be really beautiful.

"Despite recent reaction, I think the American woman of the upper class is, physically, the laziest in the world. With the advent of the automobile there seems to be some danger of her losing the use of her legs altogether. Indeed, on the analogy of her ancestors' tails, she may end by being born without any at all. But that is mere theory.

MIDDLE-CLASS EXCELS.

"Still, speaking personally, I am bound to say that even the average American woman of the upper-class seems to be distinctly prettier than any of her European sisters. But about the average American woman of the middle-classes there can, I am sure, be no doubt at all. She is incomparably the smartest, most elegant and beautiful thing that exists under Heaven. You talk of the pretty faces of English girls, the distinction of Parisian midinettes, the dash of Slavonic women—why, the American girl combines all these qualities and improves on them, too.

O! FORM DIVINE.

"And the figures of American women are acknowledged to be the finest in the world.

"It is not, to emphasize the point once again, of the women of fashion I speak, though many are, Heaven knows, lovely enough. Nor yet of American actresses, who do not seem to me to be, on the whole, nearly as good-looking as their English colleagues. It is the ordinary, every-day-go-to-work girl who takes her lunch at Child's, runs to catch a trolley-car, jostles in the subway, and patronizes what you call the cinematograph theater and she calls the "movies." It is, in fact, the Goddess of the typewriter, the Fairy of the newspaper office, the Grace of the telephone that I sing. Every time I see her I am more and more amazed at her average loveliness.

GUM: TOO BAD.

"Lest this tribute be suspected of mere infatuation it will be, perhaps, just as well to make a confession. Contrary to the usual ideas on the subject I do not, so far as generalization is possible at all, like the American woman nearly as much as the comparatively plain-looking average American man. Either literally or metaphorically, sometimes both, she is too liable to be discovered unexpectedly in the act of chewing gum—a most distressing habit for a goddess to possess. Thank Heaven, by the time these lines are printed there will be half the ocean between her and me. The hat-pin in New York looks even longer and sharper than in London."

SAN LEANDRO RANCHER TO BE WEDDED SUNDAY

SAN LEANDRO, June 12. — Antone Costa, a local rancher, will claim as his bride Sunday, Mary Silviera of San Francisco, the ceremony to take place at St. Leander's church. Rev. Father de Cruz will officiate. Following the ceremony a wedding supper will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kerrscher of this city, where the bride-to-be has often visited. The couple will make their home at San Lorenzo after a honeymoon to be spent in Santa Cruz.

ONE DRINK OF THIS SHOULD STICK TO ANYBODY'S RIBS

"I know you fellows," declared Inspector Richard McSorley of the Oakland police department to his fellow officers when about to depart for his two weeks' vacation. "You are always up to something. So I'll just look in my hamper to see that everything is all right before I start."

The other inspectors laughed and they kept on laughing when McSorley carefully felt to see whether a large bottle of extra fine brandy which he had purchased for the sister he is going to visit in Mokelumne, Calaveras county, was in its place. McSorley had displayed this proudly during the day and had placed it in his locker at the city hall for safekeeping.

"Be on the safe side always, Dick," admonished Captain of Inspectors Lou Agnew. "There's no telling what might happen."

"I keep my eyes open when I'm around with this bunch," answered McSorley. "Goodbye, boys!"

McSorley went away.

As he left the building his companions in the inspectors' room doubled up with laughter and one brought out the famous bottle of brandy from its place of concealment in a drawer.

"I substituted a bottle of mucilage," he explained. "I couldn't resist that wicker telescope basket and the big cotton duster Dick wore for his trip. He'll sure be welcomed to Calaveras."

After the bottle had been admired sufficiently it was sent by parcels post after its owner, with a little round-robin letter explaining that while the inspectors enjoyed stealing from McSorley they would not deprive his sister of the gift. The brandy will not arrive, however, until McSorley has had an opportunity to present the mucilage.

COMPANIES PUT IN SAME PRICE

Coincidence in Bidding May Lead to Big State Plants.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—The coincidence of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Great Western Power Company bidding exactly the same amount for supplying electricity to the state buildings in Sacramento, a large increase over the former price, may result in state electric plants being placed in every state institution. This business now done by the electric companies amounts to $125,000 a year.

President John F. Neylan said today this would be done if it appears from the refusal of the companies to bid lower, that there is any concerted effort on their part to unjustly boost the price to the State.

"If this coincidence of bids means that these companies are combining and are entered into an agreement to force up the rate to the Capitol, the board will seriously take up with the coming legislature the establishment of electrical plants in every one of twenty-three institutions now supplied by these companies, for the boosting of rates to the Capitol would only be the forerunner of boosting rates everywhere. That business amounts to $125,000 yearly," said Neylan.

TWO OFFICIALS WED.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—V. E. McGeorge, City Prosecuting Attorney, and Mrs. Annabelle Beresford, private secretary to City Commissioner E. R. Wilde, eloped to San Rafael and were married according to word received here yesterday.

McGeorge is a Stanford University graduate and was formerly connected with the Humboldt county schools. He has been in the City Attorney's office for two years. Mrs. Beresford is a native of Carson City, Nev.

McGeorge met Mrs. Annabelle Beresford through paying interoffice calls to Commissioner Wilder's office, and their courtship culminated in today's wedding.

STATE HEALTH EXHIBIT.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—The California State Health Board announced yesterday that initial steps had been taken preparatory to carrying out the proposed plan of installing a State health exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. It is proposed to expend $6000 in getting together an exhibit devoted proportionately to the various department bureaus of the Board, and to showing health conditions in California.

The matter of financing the exhibit outlined, together with the general plan, has been referred to the State Board of Control.

EXPOSITION GETS COIN.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—A warrant for $421,946.13 was drawn by State Controller Chambers yesterday in favor of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The warrant is on the State Treasurer and payable to Leo S. Robinson, Controller of the Commission, representative of the Exposition. This contribution is to reimburse the Exposition Commission for disbursements made during February and March, 1914. This is one of the largest warrants of the year.

The report of F. J. O'Brien shows that for February, 1914, the expenses of the Exposition Commission were $616,852.73. For March, the same year, they were $775,960.73, making a total of $1,392,822.46. The controller has in the above warrant paid 33 1-3 per cent of this amount, in keeping with the usage of the office.

AUTO NUMBER 102,545.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—The number of automobiles in the State is 102,545, according to the figures of the State Motor Vehicle Department, given today. Besides this there are 21,060 motorcycles registered and 14,360 chauffeurs' licenses out. The total number of operators in all departments is 115,710. The gross receipts of the office to date in round figures is $1,200,000.

RETIRES FROM JOB.

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—E. C. Cooper, State Insurance Commissioner, whose term expires June 15th, formally resigned yesterday to become president of the Great Republic Life Insurance Company succeeding General Adna Chaffee. Cooper will take charge July 1st and his successor as a State official will be named in the meantime.

The Great Republic Company was organized about three years ago and has many of the best financial men of Los Angeles behind it. General Chaffee was named president when it started. Chaffee, retired Lieutenant-General of the United States Army, is leaving the position to become engaged in other lines of activity.

Cooper was appointed to the State Commissionership by former Governor Gillett in June, 1910. Prior to the appointment he was secretary to Gillett. He is an attorney by profession.

As Gillett's secretary Cooper was prominent in the work at Washington in 1910 in securing the Panama-Pacific International Exposition for San Francisco.

Diseased Kidneys Poison Blood

How to Tell Whether Your Blood Is Impregnated.

Since the kidneys are of such delicate structure and so inadequately supplied with sensitive nerves, they are quite susceptible to disease. As their function is to remove impurities, any disorder affecting them affects the whole system. Unmistakable symptoms of diseased kidneys are when you arise in the morning with dull, aching pains in your back and feel as if your night's rest had not refreshed you; when you are weak, depressed, nervous or irritable; if your head aches, spots appear before your eyes or noises ring in your ears, and your appetite is poor, thirst excessive, complexion sallow; if you have indigestion, biliousness, rheumatic pains and have lost flesh rapidly—all these symptoms are due to unhealthy working of the kidneys. To make your kidneys healthy and strong you should lose no time in taking Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy. It acts beneficially on the delicate tissues of the kidneys, stimulates the diseased parts, purifies the blood by increasing the circulation and awakens the torpid liver; assists in digestion and tones the system, enabling every organ to do its work properly and fully. It is sold by all druggists in 50c and $1 sizes. Write for booklet if you address Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 963, Rochester, N. Y.

Charge Murder of Own Infant Child

PRINEVILLE, Ore., June 12.—D. K. Sheldon, aged 26, was arrested yesterday and charged with the murder of his own infant child. Sheldon and his wife live near Crisley mountain, a remote district. Their baby was born late Wednesday night.

Early yesterday several women of the neighborhood who had been at the Sheldon home left, as mother and child were doing well. When they returned a few hours later, Sheldon told them the child had died and that he had buried it, but refused to say where it was buried. The sheriff and coroner were then summoned and after questioning Sheldon, searched the place, finding the child's body, partially burned, in a stove.

When arrested and lodged in jail, Sheldon refused to make a statement.

AGED MARINER IS PEARL SMUGGLER

Captain and Trader Confesses Attempt to Evade Duty.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Captain Thomas Harris, veteran trader of the south sea isles and master of the steamer Baite, was arrested today and has confessed to smuggling a pearl necklace valued at $2,000.

Captain Harris arrived here this morning on the steamer Willochra from Raratonga. Information had come in advance of him to Special United States Treasury Agent Tidwell that he might have in his possession pearls valued at 10,000 francs. Although always above suspicion, and with a reputation of twenty-eight years as a successful merchant and trader, the customs officers nevertheless were emboldened to question Captain Harris with great care. Together with Agent Tidwell, Inspectors Foland and P. O. Huffaker took the aged mariner aside and interrogated him. He was reminded that he had not declared any pearls in his list of articles brought into this country from the Antipodes and was asked if he had not forgotten anything.

"Are you sure you have no pearls with you?" insisted Tidwell.

ALMOST ESCAPES.

"Nothing like that, boy," replied Captain Harris in jocular fashion, and the officials were almost convinced.

Nevertheless their advices that pearl smuggling had been going on for some time, and that Captain Harris might have them on his person, led them to search him. They found a string of seven beautiful pearls concealed in the leg of his trousers, and he was promptly taken into custody.

Later he appeared before United States Commissioner Krull and his bonds were fixed at $1,000.

"I am going to plead guilty, boys. There is no use fighting it," he said later. "I expect my attorney, D. B. Crane, will furnish bail for me later in the day. It's pretty tough on an old man who has been to sea all his life. I hope the judge won't be too hard on me."

The punishment ranges from a $50 fine to a five-year prison term and a $5,000 fine.

Waiting for Doctor, Leaps Three Stories

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—While his brother, who had been guarding him, fearing an attempt at suicide, stepped out of the room for a moment, P. B. Montana, a farmer of Yuba city, jumped from a third-story window at 50 Sanchez street, this afternoon, and was probably fatally hurt.

Montana, who has a wife and five children, has been a sufferer from melancholia.

He was brought here for treatment and a consultation of physicians was to have been held today.

BURGLARS LOOT HOME WHILE FAMILY IS AWAY

The home of Harry Carney, 676 Thirtieth street, was looted by burglars last night while the family was away, clothing, jewelry and a pair of opera glasses being stolen.

Room thieves entered the apartment of A. I. Lacey, 485 Twentieth street, and stole a suitcase and clothing. Miss Barbara Corea, 269 Twelfth street, reported the theft of jewelry.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless
Scalp Dries—Chokes Out the Hair and Prevents Its Growth.

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and it is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

WOMAN IS SUICIDE

Financial Difficulty Follows Separation From Husband; Written Agreement.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Mrs. Catherine W. Holyer, fifty years old, wife of J. B. Holyer of Sacramento, and evidently a woman of refinement temporarily embarrassed for funds, was found dead in an apartment at the Wiltshire Hotel, 340 Stockton street, this afternoon, under peculiar circumstances.

A week ago Mrs. Holyer sent for Dr. C. A. Weyer, explaining that she had eaten something which did not agree with her and believed that she had ptomaine poisoning. She gradually grew worse and the physician advised her to go to a hospital. Today when he called she was worse and later, she was found dead with a razor near her and two wounds on her throat, indicating that she had stabbed herself. She had lost considerable blood but not sufficient to cause death, and it is believed that she was killed by poison.

A number of telegrams and letters were found, showing that she had endeavored to obtain funds without success. She had pawned her diamonds and sealskin coat. An agreement was found in her possession showing that she and her husband had agreed to separate April 15, at Sacramento, and that he was to pay her alimony and her expenses to San Francisco.

CLOSES DOWN BANK

State Examiner Orders Big La Salle Street Depository to Suspend.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The LaSalle Street Trust and Savings bank, organized by William Lorimer five years ago, when he was United States senator from Illinois and of which he has since been president, was closed today by the state bank examiner.

While rumors of the financial trouble had been whispered of late, the actual closing of the institution was a surprise. Coincident with the closing of the LaSalle Street bank, state examiners were sent to three state banks which have heavy deposits with the larger institutions. No statement of what the closing of the bank actually means in dollars was made by the examiner. Recent reports to the state auditor's office placed the deposits of the LaSalle Street bank at more than $5,000,000. Following the closing of the bank's doors there was a crowd assembled in front, but there was no disorder.

Daniel V. Harkin, chief state bank examiner for Cook county, explained that he had not intended to close the bank when he entered it today.

"I did not mean to take possession," he said, "but I soon discovered I must. It looked extremely doubtful if the bank could continue to weather the situation. At present I cannot say whether the bank will ever resume operations. The three smaller banks will, I believe, resume business in a short time."

The LaSalle Trust and Savings bank was not a member of the Chicago Clearing House association.

According to the cashier, Charles C. Fox, the bank deposits had been over $3,900,000.

[illegible] WOMAN IN POLITICS ADDS CONFUSION

If Nominated as Miss She Must Run for Office as Mrs. Somebody.

There are 35,220 Republicans registered in Alameda county to date, according to official figures prepared by Chief Deputy Clerk A E Johnstone for the secretary of state, including registration up till today

The total registration is 94,487, of which number 53,142 are men and 41,345 women. There are 40,577 Progressive, 9854 Democrat, 4753 Socialist, 770 Prohibition and 3493 no party.

Out of the smoke and smell of preparatory campaign bustle has come a faint odor of femininity and orange blossoms A woman, a suffragist, has upset the plans of her political constituents. Although she is a candidate for public office she is running mate, Dan Cupid. Her action for the time being threw the Prohibition state central committeemen of Los Angeles into a quandary and it required some research on the part of Secretary of State Jordan to straighten out the threatened entanglement

MARRIAGE DURING RACE.

Charles B Berger chairman of the committee in the southern county, ex-

Jordan It was something like this One of the prominent women nominees on the state ticket of the Prohibition ticket announced that she intended to get married this fall, the date coming between the primary and the general election

"She refused either to hasten or delay the matter to suit the convenience of our election law," wrote Chairman Berger "If she is successful at the primaries she will go on the ticket for the general election. In the meantime, however, her name will have become changed, which complicates matters"

Secretary Jordan decided that no matter what new name she takes she will have to go on the final ballot under her maiden name in order that the electors may not be confused

However, there is a possibility of that particular section of the ballot reading something like this

"Assemblyman—Mrs William H. Roe, nee Miss Annie Doe Prohib"

Doe is of course, not the candidate's real name and it will not be Roe, but that is an example of what would be a unique situation.

GARDEN SOLDIERS ASK FOR GERANIUM PLANTS

Oakland's Garden Soldiers, now engaged in the beautification of the city, are issuing a call for two million geranium plants with which they expect to border the streets in time for the 1915 visitors.

It is suggested that all who have garden space plant geranium slips, and after they become well rooted, let the children transplant them to the street lines. The geranium is a sturdy plant, immune to weather conditions requiring little or no cultivation after having become well rooted

The little Garden Soldiers recently planted Grand avenue to street-bordering shrubs and with the co-operation of the citizens, they expect to plant every street with garden plants, between now and the fall rains

MANY DIE IN MAZATLAN BATTLE

Gen. Obregon Flings His Rebel Forces Against Garrison

Carranza Delegates Are Barred From Mediation Conference

Mazatlan, Mexico, June 11 (by wireless to San Diego, Cal.).—The Constitutionalist army, under General Obregon, began today its first concerted general assault on the Federal fortification at Mazatlan, commanded by General Roderguez. The battle raged all day, and although the besieged garrison held its positions, it lost heavily in killed and wounded.

The first heavy rains of the wet season began here today and will add to the hardships of the combatants.

The Federals, who are short of supplies themselves and must in addition keep under control a starving and hostile populace within their lines, will suffer most from this new burden.

The besiegers have plenty of provisions, and, by reason of their superior numbers, can keep the garrison harassed night and day, between assaults, while a majority of their number rest.

The rebel gunboat Tampico, it was learned today, has been floated at Topolombampo and, if she can be brought south to Mazatlan, will greatly aid the attacking force by covering with her artillery fire their advances on positions they have not dared attempt.

CARRANZA DELEGATES BARRED.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 12.—The mediators will not officially admit to the conference here the representatives General Carranza has announced he will send to Niagara Falls.

The South American diplomats said they could not recede from their original conditions, demanding an armistice.

Mediation today had achieved its first important step. After nearly three weeks of parleying, the mediators and the American and Huerta delegates were ready formally to approve in full conference the method by which the executive power in Mexico City shall be transferred from the Huerta administration to a new provisional government.

HUERTA BLOCKED.

The Constitutionalist form of succession, permitting General Huerta to appoint as minister of foreign affairs the man chosen here for the provisional presidncy, has been abandoned. The United States claimed that to follow this method would be recognizing Huerta's authority as constitutional. Instead there will be an abrupt transfer of authority to the new provisional president, with the probability that the oath of office will be administered by the chief justice of the Supreme Court.

There was a deadlock for three days over the manner of transition from Huerta, but the Mexicans finally yielded on the ground that technicalities should not jeopardize the prospect for peace. The mediators, too, are determined to remove every technical obstacle. The work of the conferences is now centered on the second point in the plan for the pacification of Mexico, which deals with the personnel of the new government. Names have not yet been submitted by the United States because there has been no direct communication with the Constitutionalists and it is that party which the American government is aiming to satisfy so as to persuade them to lay down their arms.

TO OBTAIN INFORMATION.

The trip of George C. Carothers, special representative of the state depart from Torreon to Saltillo, was interpreted here as meaning that he will endeavor to obtain information from General Carranza directly which will aid the American delegates in handling the details of the peace plan.

In the meantime the announcement from Saltillo that General Carranza has decided to send delegates to the mediation conference injected a complex phase into the situation. It has been intimated for several days that the Constitutionalist chief would announce his intention of sending delegates, but would make no mention in his note of the instructions or powers of his representatives nor grant an armistice. The mediators have been firm in their determination to exclude Constitutionalist delegates unless an armistice previously had been declared.

The dispatch from Saltillo yesterday, stating that the Carranza note made no mention of the conditions under which he was sending delegates, was shown to the mediators. They declined to make formal comment, but let it be known their attitude has undergone no change. They reiterated that admission of the Constitutionalists is and will continue to be contingent upon declaration of an armistice.

The mediators will have no objection if a conference could be held between the Huerta delegats, the Carranza delegates and the Americans. In fact, such a suggestion has been under consideration for some time, so that if an agreement could be reached between these three parties at interval the mediators would finally admit all to the signing of a protocol.

It is considered possible that the Carranza delegates might be informally received here and their argument heard as to why any armistice cannot be declared.

CARRANZA SENDS REPLY.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—General Carranza's reply to the Mexican mediators announcing his intention of sending three delegates to the Niagara conference was received here early today and forwarded to Niagara Falls.

No announcement of the contents but it was understood the note is silent on the subject of an armistice and does not give the names of the men who will be sent to represent the Constitutionalists.

It is known, however, that Rafael Zubaran, minister of the interior in the Carranza cabinet and chief of the agency here, will not be among the delegates, as General Carranza considers Zubaran is needed to look after affairs here.

Two of the delegates are almost certain to be Luis Cabrera, a prominent figure in the Constitutionalist movement, and Jose Vasconcelos, a young lawyer. The name of the third man was not known here.

President Wilson today authorized the announcement that he considers the progress of mediation at Niagara Falls as "very encouraging." No formal statement was made of the basis of the president's optimism, but it was said unofficially that he expects mediation to have a successful outcome within the next few days.

CLEARS AWAY CONFLICT.

President Wilson today issued an executive order to clear away any conflict of authority over shipments of arms to Mexico. It follows:

"As matters which relate to the clearance of vessels fall within the jurisdiction of the department of commerce, it is hereby ordered that instructions to customs officers concerning the exportation of arms and munitions of war to Mexico by sea shall be given by that department. Similar instructions, concerning such exportations by land shall be issued by the treasury department."

No explanation of the order was made, but it was recalled that the recent clearance of the liner Antilla from New York for Tampico with arms for the Constitutionalists was described as "misconstruction of orders" and it developed that there was conflict of authority between the two departments.

It was understood here today that Iglesias Calderon, who probably will head the Carranza delegates, is about to start from Saltillo for Washington and Niagara Falls with instructions.

In General Carranza's latest note, which was forwarded to Niagara today, no mention whatever is made of the question of an armistice or the questions to be discussed.

FOOD SUPPLY SHORT.

MEMPHIS, June 12.—Vera Cruz is in urgent need of foodstuffs, according to an official report of the United States consul in that city, quoted in a telegram received by the Merchants' Exchange of Memphis, from Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce. Secretary Redfield ordered that shippers be informed that foodstuffs intended for consumption in Vera Cruz would be admitted duty free. In his telegram, dated June 10, the consul at Ver Cruz reported:

"Food supply problem is rapidly becoming serious. Prices for staples almost prohibitive. For example, potatoes selling for thirty cents a pound, gold. Other articles in proportion. Suggest arrangements be made to send Vera Cruz large quantities corn, beans, potatoes, hams, etc., to be sold at nominal prices."

ARMS FOR REBELS.

TAMPICO, Mexico, June 11.—Via Laredo, Texas, June 12.—The steamship Antilla from New York discharged her cargo of ammunition today for the Constitutionalists.

Sixteen hundred cases of ammunition and two aeroplanes were immediately dispatched north on a special train.

Until after her arrival at the wharf here the Antilla knew nothing of the projected blockade of the port or the presence of the Federal gunboats Zaragoza and Bravo outside the harbor. The Antilla will sail tomorrow for Tantoyuca to recover the body of Weston Burwell, the American reported murdered by Federal soldiers

[illegible] COMMANDMENT [illegible] ROB HER AT DOOR

Mrs. C. Espee Choked and Divested of Diamond Bracelet and Purse.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Followed from a down-town cafe to the very door of her apartment at the Hotel Menton, Alice and Jones street, Mrs. C. Espee was attacked, choked and robbed by two men at an early hour this morning, and through information furnished by her the police captured the alleged culprits later and they are charged at the city prison.

Mrs. Espee was dining at Stock's Cafe, when she became engaged in conversation with two strangers. They seemed friendly and she did not hesitate to talk to them. The three lingered for some time over the meal and it was after 1 o'clock when the woman excused herself and hurried away to her home. She did not realize until she was almost inside that she was being followed. She hurried up the stairs without waiting for the elevator and just as she reached her door she saw that the man had turned nervous excitement she could not open the door quick enough and claims that the men seized her, forced her inside and choked her almost into insensibility. They took a gold bracelet set with four diamonds and a purse containing $16.50.

Mrs. Espee was so overcome that it was some time before she could summon sufficient strength to go in search of the police. She found Corporal Henrichs and Patrolman Lewis. To them she told her ing suspiciously previously and had questioned them. One of the men had given the officer his address explaining his reason for being out at such an hour and Lewis easily remembered the man's description. The officers went to the New Commercial Hotel where they arrested Harry Davis, who was in company with Violet Francis, a dance hall girl. Under Davis' pillow they found Mrs. Espee's bracelet and purse. From further information received they went to the St. Paul hotel where they arrested John Beagle. Both men were booked for robbery, the Francis woman being placed in detinue pending an investigation.

SAYS HOME RULE IS IMPOSSIBLE

Member of Ulster Opposition Declares Army Won't Enforce It.

BOSTON, June 12.—A. D. Sanderson of Belfast, Ireland, who is prominent in the Ulster opposition pto home rule, has arrived here, accompanied by his wife, a daughter of President Archbold of the Standard Oil Company. They will spend the summer at Bar Harbor, Me.

"The enforcement of home rule in Ulster is impossible," Sanderson said, "because we have the money, men and brains to prevent it. The English army will never enforce it. I have talked with many British generals and almost all of them told us that they and their staffs would resign if such an order were given. We are now waiting to see what Premier Asquith can do to enforce it without the army back of him. We are also waiting to see what the king will do.

"We have 120,000 Ulster men enrolled for service and 80,000 of them are armed. Rifles and ammunition are steadily pouring into Ulster."

VOTES COIN TO KILL SQUIRRELS IN STATE

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Despite the efforts of Representatives Fitzgerald of New York, Garner of Texas and others who opposed an appropriation of $20,000 in the sundry civil bill to exterminate rats and squirrels in California, the House yesterday voted to include the sum in the bill.

Representatives Kahn, Raker and other Californians defended the appropriation.

Kahn attacked the Texas opposition, showing where millions are spent by the Government to fight the boll weevil in that State, while neither the State nor a single county appropriated a cent.

On the other hand, San Francisco and the California counties spend vast sums annually to assist in keeping out the bubonic plague, he declared.

OLD TABLE COVER MAY MAKE BELTS

For Fashion Now Decrees Wide Girdle of Shining Material.

NEW YORK, June 12. — Everything is going to waist. That portion of woman's anatomy has long been the junk heap for all sorts of metals, hides and fabrics to hang upon; but the present wide girdle of hard black shiny oilcloth is the champion belt of all for uncompromising ugliness. Nevertheless, it is smart, oh very, and you simply must be spanned with one about your middle.

The accepted model is about eight inches wide in crushed effect and fastens on the side with a sprawling vertical bow of the shiny material. Black oilcloth is most extensively used but white oilcloth is decidedly chic also and gives the fair wearer the appearance of being all dressed up like the kitchen table.

This craze for oilcloth and ribbon waxed to simulate the real article first went to fashion's head as hat trimming and now that it has her on the middle ground it does not seem at all misappropriate that it should appear as the very newest of all dress trimmings.

Particularly in combination with blue serge is the banding and binding of the hard black shiny surface most striking.

Funeral effects on both hat and frock are simply the last gasp of the mode and dull glazed wreaths of white leaves and flowers on the dull glazed black and white straw shapes in combination with not "dead" swell. Let us hope, however, that lovely woman's mad passion for everything glazed will not extend to her eyes.

TIME OUT, AGAIN.

"Watch out" is again the slogan. To be abreast of the time your watch must now dangle from the bosom of your coat or blouse. Of oblong shape like the smartest wrist watches the new timepiece hangs on a grosgrain ribbon exactly the width of the watch and decorated with a single jeweled slide and is pinned to the blouse or the outside of the coat with a bar pin.

The advent of this new rival has not [illegible] the novelties black enamel watches set with brilliants in bracelets, of onyx are charming exponents of the new fad for black and white jeweled combinations and settings.

BOUQUET IN BACK.

Just another little instance of fashion's wierd vagaries is the style of wearing the corsage bouquet in the middle of your back instead of in front. It is quite the thing to fasten either a single rose or a tiny nosegay in the middle of the back of your crush silk girdle whose sash ends the fall from the floral decoration. If you prefer, a rosebud may nestle instead on the left hand flare of your rolling collar.

Salamander fashions launched from the descriptions of the style of garments affected by the heroine of Owen Johnson's latest novel have New York at their feet. As the frocks and suits are all cut on the straight lines of the long Russian blouse it will certainly be like playing with fire for any but the very slim and most youthful of figures to adapt the Salamander styles to their own personality.

Even the most pudgy, however, may indulge in an adoption of Salamander gloves, hankies and stationary, the last two articles sporting a facsimile of the lizard like beastie by way of decoration. The Salamander gloves, both long and short, are all of biscuit or cafe au lait suede and doeskin and very correct and trim looking. There are also Salamander blouses, hats, capes and everything for feminine wear from the skin out.

Indeed, if clothes made the woman as they say they do, the man then by donning a complete Salamander outfit presto change, every woman could turn into a fascinating "Dodo" of the book and capture a millionaire spouse on the strength of her garments.

STORES UNDER FIRE.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The United States Industrial Commission, which has been holding hearing at the city hall since June 1, today turned its attention at the final session to the department stores of New York City. Prominent department store owners, as well as shop girls and other employes of big establishments, were to be given a hearing.

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercolized wax. Nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly without harm, at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding complexion defects, it removes them. It actually takes off the aged, faded, sallow freckled or blotchy cuticle, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexions. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or nerve tone, mercolized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you've never tried mercolized wax, get an ounce of it at the drug store, use at night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning.

Another natural beautifying treatment —for wrinkled skin—is to bathe the face [illegible] of saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. This is remarkably and instantaneously effective.

WILLIAM F. BARNARD IS WED TO MISS E. SILVEY

The marriage of William Everett Barnard and Miss Ethel Silvey took place very quietly this afternoon, owing to the recent death of the groom's father, the late W. C. Barnard. It was solemnized at the Barnard residence in Piedmont, where the bride, whose home is in Dixon, has been a guest for the past week. Rev. Albert Palmer was the officiating clergyman and only the immediate relatives of the families were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Harold Havens, the latter of whom was Miss Lillian Barnard. After the honeymoon the young couple will reside in Northern California, where the groom has business interests.

ITCHED SO, HE TORE HIS FLESH, RESINOL CURED

Tortured for Three Weeks, But Two Applications Did the Work.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3, 1913: "All over my body were small pimples which itched me so that I could just grab my flesh and tear it apart. For three weeks I could not sleep at night until I was simply exhausted. I tried most everything that was supposed to give relief, and I can truthfully say that not until I used Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment did I begin to feel like the man I was. After only two applications there were no more symptoms of my ailment." (Signed) A. Jackson, care of Water Registrar's Office, District Building.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years, for all sorts of skin troubles, pimples, dandruff, sores, ulcers, burns, wounds and piles. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, but for trial size, free, write to Dept. 2-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Do not be deceived by imitations.

IDORA BEGINS SEASON WITH "MADAME SHERRY"

The musical comedy season has again arrived at Idora Park and with it, Ferris Hartman has returned to delight his many admirers and to win the hearts of the younger generation. The company over which the genial Hartman presides has opened very happily in "Madame Sherry," perhaps the most notable light operatic success of many years. The Hoschna music is given by a capable band under Hartman's old team mate, Jack Raines, while the fun of the story is portrayed by a clever company assembled for the present season.

Miss Myrtle Dingwall, well known to fame in San Francisco from seasons at the Tivoli and Gaiety threaters, has the role of Madame Sherry. Miss Dingwall is a charming singer of the soubrette type and promises to be a prime favorite with the Idora audiences.

The company commenced its summer season with "Madame Sherry" last night, and this show will continue during the coming week. It was given a brilliant opening, with new costuming, new settings. The performance went with a dash, showing the capable hands of both Hartman and Raines in whipping a company into shape for the opening night.

More than 10,000 people, members of the various vereins, their families and all friends of athletics and gymnastic education, are expected to participate. The active and passive members of the Sacramento Turn Verein will arrive by special train of five cars, and 30 male turners, 25 ladies and over 100 juniors and school-children of that verein alone take part in the gymnastic exhibition, and will consist of the following numbers:

BRANCH OF FEDERATION.

The Pacific Turn Besirk is a branch of the North American Turner Bund, a great federation uniting more than 450 turn vereins all over the United States, and devoted to the physical, intellectual and moral education of its several hundred thousand male and female members and pupils. One of its special aims is the introduction of a scientific system of physical culture in our public schools and universities. The numerous vereins are organized in the various states into "bezirks," according to the size and population of the various states. Last year in Indianapolis, at its national convention which is held every four years, the federation resolved unanimously to dispense for once with this four-year-rule, and hold its next national convention, called "bundes tagsatzung," in 1915 at San Francisco. Once before in the sixty years' history of the federation San Francisco enjoyed this honor, in 1898, and ever since there has been a great longing for our beautiful San Francisco and California in the representative members of the federation.

BAY CONVENTION IN S. F.

The next national convention in San Francisco will take place during the first week of August, 1915, and will be preceded by a grand turn fest to be held upon the arrival of the delegates and guests from all over the United States. Many thousand members of the federation and their families are expected to visit San Francisco and the world's fair on that occasion, and the fest to be held next Sunday at Shellmound Park is to create a fund for their entertainment and the proper arrangement of the national convention by the Pacific Turn Bezirk.

The arrangement committee consists of the following members of the Pacific Turn Bezirk:

San Francisco Turn Verein—F. Attinger, A. Franke, Adam Brehm.
Mission Turn Verein—Emil Liess, G. Liebold, J. J. Kuhn.
Eintracht Turn Verein—R. Kaulfuss, Emil Specht, William Fehlemelcher.
Oakland Turn Verein—Albert Currlin, M. Wolf, John Tillman.
Officers of the committee—F. Attinger, chairman; Emil Liess, treasurer, and John Tillmann, secretary.

WORLD'S CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE PERMANENT

The plan is for the establishment of a permanent bureau at Brussels and the submission of questions by mail to the members, somewhat after the course followed by the chambers of commerce of the United States, the bureau to summarize the replies as a basis for action.

CITY RATES OF TAXES COMPARED

Some objections to voting bonds, not alone for the auditorium, but other purposes, have been made by persons who contend that the tax rate is too high. Without entering into an extended discussion that cities which desire to progress must expect to pay for the improvements they secure and that no city can progress unless certain improvements are secured, it may be stated that comparisons show that Oakland's tax rate compares favorably with cities of like importance throughout the country.

Oakland's levy is made on a fifty per cent basis, that is to say prosperity is taxed by the assessor at one-half its actual value. Its last levy was $3.08 inside and outside, meaning that this included the city, county and state assessment. Compared with other cities of the country this sum was a reasonable one. The following instances are quoted:

Albany, New York, levied a tax of $2.16 on a one hundred per cent basis. Had the levy been made on a fifty per cent valuation, as is the case here, the rate would have been $4.32.

Baltimore's rate was $1.98 on a one hundred per cent valuation, or [illegible] had it been made on Oakland's basis. Boston's was $1.72 on a one hundred per cent valuation, or $2.54. The borough of Brooklyn, New York, was $1.85 on a valuation of 100 per cent, or $3.70 on a fifty per cent basis. Buffalo, N. Y., levied $2.29 on an eighty per cent basis. The assessment of Cambridge, Mass., was $2.04 on a 100 per cent valuation, or $4.08 on the Oakland plan.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, ONE OF THE MOST PROSPEROUS AND GROWING TOWNS OF THE UNION, A BUSY PLACE, A LAKE PORT WITH IMMENSE TONNAGE, LEVIED A TAX OF $5.88 ON A ONE HUNDRED PER CENT BASIS. UNDER THE OAKLAND PLAN THIS RATE WOULD HAVE BEEN $11.76.

The levy of Grand Rapids, Mich., was $2.14 on the complete valuation, or $4.28 on the Oakland plan. Jersey City was $2.12 or $4.24 had the tax been collected according to local custom. Portland, Oregon, levies a tax of $2.20 on a seventy-five per cent basis. Other cities might be cited, but why continue?

It is apparent from these comparisons that Oakland is not overtaxed when the improvements she is securing through taxation are taken into consideration. The following statement is pertinent when taken into consideration with the question at issue. It will be recalled that the Shredded Wheat Biscuit Company, a concern representing an output of millions yearly, is preparing to locate here and do business on an extensive scale. During the visit of President Porter, at the time he was looking over the situation, he asked what the amount of the tax levy was and this information being given, replied:

"MANUFACTURING CONCERNS SUCH AS I REPRESENT DO NOT OBJECT TO TAX LEVIES OF THIS MAGNITUDE SO LONG AS WE OBSERVE THAT THE CITIES IMPOSING THESE TAXES ARE GETTING THE RESULTS. IN THIS INSTANCE OAKLAND IS GETTING THE RESULTS. THE VARIOUS IMPROVEMENTS UNDER WAY ARE A DEMONSTRATION OF THIS AND WE ARE PERFECTLY SATISFIED WITH THIS CONDITION."

THE TRIBUNE has the authority to repeat this statement. It was made to F. M. Clough, who was largely instrumental in securing the location of this enterprise here.

As THE TRIBUNE has stated many times, objections to bond issues and tax levies are not made so often on the real merits of the case as through misinformation. Rumors arise and are circulated carelessly and with no verification, and a rumor loses nothing in its circulation. The intelligent citizen, however, verifies all reports before accepting them and therefore is enabled to act according to the best sort of judgment.

Many inaccurate statements have been made anent this auditorium. Reports of graft have been frequent WHEN AS A MATTER OF RECORD IT HAS BEEN PROVEN BEYOND CAVIL THAT NO GRAFT HAS BEEN COMMITTED. The records are open for the inspection of all. Every voucher, every bill, is a part of the general transaction. These have been examined by the Alameda County Tax Association and it has been demonstrated that EVERY CENT SPENT ON THE AUDITORIUM TODAY HAS BROUGHT A RETURN TO THE CITY OF ITS EQUIVALENT IN LABOR OR MATERIAL.

With these facts before it, the citizenship of Oakland ought not have any hesitation whatever in voting the bonds for the completion of such an important improvement; for the consummation of an enterprise meaning so much to the city.

Now comes the announcement that the militant suffragettes of London propose to "capture" the colonel on his visit to England. All right, all right. But if they do it is a two to one wager the story of the man who had the bear by the tail and appeal for assistance in an effort to let the animal go will be repeated. The militant element had best not monkey with the colonel.

Those Chinese exposition commissioners who are due in San Francisco today and who are bringing their own rice with them lest they find the supply here short, evidently have not heard that California has 12,000 acres devoted to the culture of their favorite grain.

It is announced that German scientists have succeeded in locating ore deposits by a system of wireless telegraphy. This being true the prospector of the future will carry a ticker instead of a pick and shovel.

Up to this time the biggest fish story comes from Monterey. The Cypress relates that more than forty tons of salmon were [illegible]

Your vote may save the auditorium; go to the polls and vote.

Short String on Repeal Bill.

Opponents of the repeal of the no tolls clause for coastwise ships in the Panama Canal Act have succeeded in amending the measure by the adoption of a provision reserving any rights this nation may have in the ocean highway. The declaration adopted provides that the passage of the act shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any right under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty or otherwise to discriminate in favor of vessels owned by its citizens from the payment of tolls or affecting the sovereignty of the nation over the canal.

In effect this amendment provides a method for exempting coastwise ships from payment of tolls, if at any time the Congress shall deem such a step necessary. The amendment of Senator Sutherland of Utah, which "asserted" the rights of the nation in the canal instead of "reserving" them as provided in the amendment adopted was more emphatic in declaration, but doubtless no more effective. That a change in administration is coming is apparent. That the Democratic majority in the lower house will be materially reduced at the fall elections is almost certain. With the return to power of the friends of American commerce and shipping, the free tolls clause will doubtless be reenacted or authority given the executive to suspend charges.

That Mr. Wilson will not be satisfied with this bill as changed is certain, but he will no doubt approve it, as it is the best he can get at the hands of the present national legislature.

Notwithstanding Representative Britten of Illinois has introduced a bill making it a penal offense for a cabinet official, head or clerk of a governmental department to lecture for pay while enjoying the emoluments of office, it is noted that Secretary Bryan rushed off to Bennington, N. J., delivered a discourse and returned home in the same old manner.

Plenty of time for voting for the auditorium bonds before going home to dinner.

It requires a book of ninety-six pages to present the arguments for and against the forty proposed amendments to the state constitution. How many voters will peruse this little volume issued by the Secretary of State?

When it comes to making real objections to systems of governments, the English militants seem to have Ulsterites crowded off the map.

There is one consolation connected with the approaching close of the cherry season; the green apple is nearly ready to take its place in the pie crust.

Imperial Valley's Press declares there is no statesmanship in the old parties, which is a direct slap at Ed. White and "Constitutional" John Curtin.

With all the respect that the two weddings inspire us, it is difficult to refrain from saying that Kermit and his bride, having gone through a pair of ceremonies, ought to be able to stand hitched.

The Lord loveth a cheerful giver. Divinity also has an affection for a booster. Get in the latter class by voting for the auditorium bonds today. There is time enough yet.

Remember you have several hours yet in which to vote for the auditorium bonds.

Where are you going my pretty maid? To vote for the bonds kind sir, she said.

During the hearing of the case Krag's wife, an elderly woman, demonstrated great interest. As soon as the order of discharge was given, Mrs Krag jumped to her feet and made a break for the judge to express her gratitude The administrator of justice skipped to the other side "Darlint" said his adorer "Darlint turned from green to red, then white and then back to green, while the courtroom howled Mrs Krag, disgusted at the judge's bashfulness, withdrew from the room, while his Honor fled to his office and locked his door

BITS ABOUT PEOPLE

One of the famous English judges after hearing a civil action, in which there had been some remarkably hard swearing on both sides, thus addressed the jury. "Gentlemen of the jury if you believe the evidence tendered by the witnesses called on behalf of the plaintiff you will find for the plaintiff If you believe the defendant's witnesses you will find for the defendant If like myself you believe none of them heaven knows what your verdict will be" Still more succinct was the summing up in the trial of a man charged with stealing some ducks The evidence against him was overwhelming, but a long procession of witnesses came to testify to his blameless life. "Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge, [illegible] agree with me that the plaintiff stole the ducks and that he is the most popular man in the county"

In one of the suburbs of London somebody stole the snowdrops belonging to a good but excitable old lady In her agony [illegible] was summoned two fire brigades The incident recalls an anecdote of Landor, which had its birth in the time when he was living in Florence. Landor, then, lived up to his reputation as an "eccentric character when an unsatisfactory meal was served up before him He impulsively threw the cook out of the window, beneath which was a bed of violets, and immediately repented his action "Good gracious," Landor explaimed in an agony "I forgot the violets!"

Branch Is Organized to Assist in Obtaining Farm Adviser.

ALVARADO, June 12.—Considerable interest is being taken here in the formation of a branch of the Alameda County Farm Bureau, the organization under the direction of which it is planned to secure a farm adviser. Following the organization of branches in Livermore, Pleasanton, Niles and Hayward, Alvarado and the other Washington township centers are falling into line. ... signed up here. Castro Valley also has an organization well under way.

The local center will work in co-operation with the different bodies, one of the most powerful being the Oakland center of which Frank A. Leach Jr., is permanent chairman. The local branch will choose a chairman next week.

A membership campaign will be started shortly throughout the centers of the entire bureau, similar to that already under way in Oakland and it is expected to add at least 500 members to the bureau within a few weeks by this move. The commercial organizations have been asked to co-operate in the work, and Joseph E. Caine, managing director of the Oakland Commercial Club, has, in letters to this center, guaranteed his support. W. E. Gibson, representing the chamber of commerce and the Merchants' Exchange, also promised support. Gibson himself owns a large ranch near Niles.

Farley B. Granger, formerly of Alvarado and now of San Leandro, is a leader in the move in that town and is also in close touch with the Alvarado situation.

FUNSTON MAY BE HIS OWN EDITOR

Correspondents to Accompany Troops, if War Occurs, Under Orders.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, June 12.—If war comes it won't be a secret war. There will be no hidden monstrous things buried in the archives of the war department away from the sight and knowledge of the American people. This much in respect to the question of publicity, has been decided by Secretary Garrison. The white light of American journalism is to be constantly fixed on the American army in the field, and the scrutiny of the correspondents is not to be limited in any way. It is realized in Washington that more of the possibilities of war scandal lurk in secrecy than in full publicity and the general, in a Mexican campaign, who tries hiding facts or conditions will find himself accountable to Washington.

But this doesn't mean that the American public is to get its news hot from the front. In fact, it won't. The truth is that in the game of war under the newest rules, war correspondents aren't wanted. War colleges, great European tacticians, strategy boards—all the men and organizations in civilization, who lay down the rules for warfare, agree that war correspondents ought not to have a place in the game at all. In the English army war correspondents have no standing; they are not given passes even for the annual maneuvers. The same is true in Germany and France. The vote of army men is unanimous that the war correspondent is dangerous, and must be done away with, as far as possible.

COURTMARTIAL, MAYBE.

The United States, however, is going to try a new tack. The war department's plan is to permit war correspondents to accompany the army, but to place them in the rank of officers, subject to the slightest orders and wishes of the commander.

The hope that an observant and unchecked war correspondent can make in war time is tremendous. In these days of the wireless. The smallest facts which he might send to his paper in some distant city regarding the movements or whereabouts of forces, is sure to be seized upon, when it is published, by some agent of the enemy, who will send the news around the world, if necessary, to get it to the enemy.

The only way to check the war correspondent is by censorship. And so every word the war correspondent with the army writes for the cable, every letter he writes home, to his mother, his sweetheart or his managing editor, will be passed upon by a censor.

On the other hand, the new regulations for war correspondents, provide that they may move about as they please inside the American lines and they particularly specify that after the war is over and there is no further need of keeping facts from the enemy, the correspondent may cut loose and write as he pleases.

The specifications provided, particularly, that a war correspondent may entertain whatever opinions he pleases during warfare and that the specifications are not to be taken as meaning any interference with free thinking and full and complete note taking.

MUST HAVE FURLOUGH.

Incidentally, no correspondent who starts out with the field army, is to be permitted to return to the United States, without special permission of the war department. This is to prevent any correspondent from yielding his place at the front in order to get back to the United States with a story that might aid the enemy.

Grouchy, critical, dyspeptic men, who are inclined to think that the best kind of stories is the kind that criticizes and who throw the yellow light of bilious fault finding instead of the white light of truth on the activities in the American camp, aren't wanted. Fellows of this sort will be weeded out before credentials are given.

Jolly optimistic, good-natured, healthy-minded sensible, strong-bodied young men, who know that war is war and that a general must win even if a battle does turn into a rough and tumble fight, in which rules must be thrown to the winds and everything done to succeed, they're the kind of men who make the best war correspondents. They wind up, at the finish, with the best stories, the most truth, and the best personal records.

DELEGATES ON TRIP.

PARIS, June 12.—Today was an "unofficial" day in the program of the sixth International Congress of the Chambers of Commerce, in session here since Monday. The American delegates joined with other visitors in a trip to Epernay and Rheims. They were to rturn to Paris this evening.

The Effects of Opiates.

That infants are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache?

USE ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS

Dr. J. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not shorten life, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to undergo the periodical attacks every few weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent, and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack are all that it is possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two Anti-kamnia Tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one Anti-kamnia Tablet every two hours during the attack shortens it, eases the pain and brings rest and quiet. BATTERY CHARGE FOR CUTTING HAIR

School Ma'am Trims Pupil; Parents Have Her Arrested.

SEIGMAN, Ariz., June 12—This town is apparently well pleased with the acquittal of Miss Grace Miller, a pretty school teacher, who was charged with assaulting Carl Draper one of her pupils, because she cut his hair.

Her alleged offense consisted in shearing Draper's hair after long efforts to induce the lad to appear in the classroom in a neat condition without long unkempt locks falling over his eyes. Finally, losing patience, the school ma'am took her scissors and despite the boy's struggles, cut the hair from his forehead. The boy's parents brought criminal action charging the girl with assault.

The trial was largely attended. The judge said he could find nothing in the [illegible] laws covering such an offense, refused to entertain a complaint from local barbers that the teacher had been cutting hair without a license and released the girl.

TRANSFER OF TEACHER IS PROTESTED

Friends of Miss A. M. Richardson Would Retain Her at Lakeview School.

"We transfer teachers at no [illegible] loss of salary to them, and for the good of the school department at large. In this case we decided to place a man of wide experience, an installer of systems, in a school about to be greatly enlarged. I know that this is the proper action. If the Board of Education and the superintendent of schools cannot use the best judgment in administration matters, and must listen to every neighborhood protest, what is the use of a school board or a superintendent? If neighborhood protests are going to run the schools, why not abolish administrative heads?"

This is the answer of Superintendent of Schools A. C. Barker to the protest meeting held yesterday to oppose the transfer of Miss A. M. Richardson, principal of the Lake View school, to the Santa Fe school. The Lake View school, according to the superintendent, is to be enlarged, and for this reason he has planned to place a university man of experience in the office.

"In a case of this kind," declared Barker, "we can either promote the teacher already in the school, or get another and better one. We chose this latter course. Miss Richardson has exactly as good and as profitable a job as before. It is natural enough for these people who know and love her to ask her retention, but this board cannot look at personalities. The board must consider what is best for the school.

"Miss Richardson is one of the best primary teachers in the service. We value her. We have given her another good school and she suffers no loss of salary. The trouble is that she is not raised, I suppose. The Lake View school, when enlarged, will carry more money with it."

PETITION CIRCULATED.

The meeting held yesterday in the Lake View school, resulted in a petition being circulated, urging Miss Richardson's reinstatement. This will be presented at the next meeting of the board. Indignant protests were made by women at the session. Mrs. H. S. Kergan acted as chairman and one hundred and fifty were at the meeting.

"Miss Richardson has done good work," declared Mrs. Kergan, "and is a good disciplinarian and executive. She was, moreover, promised the promotion and made all her plans in accordance. She did not know of her transfer until it was announced at the board meeting. It is an outrage and the people of this district will not tolerate it."

Among others who took part in the indignation meeting yesterday were Mrs. William Hamilton Morris, Mrs. James F. Wiggins, Mrs. Fred Stolp, Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Mrs. R. C. Young, Mrs. F. M. Ball, and Mrs. P. P. Musser.

Superintendent Barker, at the meeting, attempted to explain his side of the case. It was with difficulty that Mrs. Kergan, as chairman, quieted the angry women, and Barker, seizing his hat, declared that he was not there to argue or answer questions, and left the place.

"I cannot discuss these matter without doing injustice to teachers," he declared. "I will only say that according to the judgment of the board the action taken is for the good of the school service."

Today dozens of telephone calls came into the office. Barker remained firm in his stand and declares that further action will be in the hands of the board. A stormy protest is expected at the board meeting next Tuesday night.

Other protests, it isdeclared, are being prepared against other transfers and dismissals of the year.

UNDRAPED LIMBS AMUSE CLUBWOMEN

SOME SMILE, OTHERS ARE CAUSTIC

"WOMEN WHO WANT REFORM IN DRESS AND MORALS SHOULD NOT PERMIT SUCH THINGS," DECLARED A DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS AT CHICAGO TODAY. "THE REVELS OF DAPHNE," A PAGEANT IN WHICH COSTUMING AS ABOVE FIGURED LARGELY, WAS WHAT THE DELEGATE OBJECTED TO. THAT THESE COSTUMES WERE ARTISTICALLY BEAUTIFUL WAS ADMITTED, BUT—

Meanwhile Fight Goes On for Suffrage Endorsement and President Praises the Husbands

CHICAGO, June 12.—The "revels of Daphne," a Greek pageant in which figured many bare-limbed, airly clad girls and several male dancers in similar classic freedom of garb, was a much discussed topic today among members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The pageant was given last night at the Art Institute. Aside from the attendants and the male dancers, no men witnessed the production.

While virtually the club women agree as to the artistic beauty of the spectacle, there was variance of opinion upon the propriety of lack of drapery of the dancers.

Mrs. J. R. Gordon of Pueblo, Colo., delegate-at-large, voiced the disapproving opinions.

"It was wrong. It should not have been allowed," she declared. "Women who want reform in dress and morals should not permit such things."

MODESTY AND STYLE.

The dancers' classic costumes, Mrs. Gordon declared, however, were modest compared with some of the extreme fashionable effects worn by delegates to the federation who were among the spectators.

Other guests gave unqualified praise to the pageant.

Mrs. Herman Hall, one of the dance committee, said that after a dress rehearsal it was suggested that the dancers wear more drapery and that all but the youngest girls wear stockings. These suggestions were not put into effect, she said.

The dance represented the pursuit of Daphne by Apollo.

Three thousand women cheered the American man as "the greatest blessing to womankind" at today's meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The tribute to the nation's breadwinners that aroused the applause of the delegates was delivered by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the federation.

KIND WORD FOR HUBBY.

"My friends," Mrs. Pennbacker said, "think what a splendid thing it is for us that we have the club husband. Think of the sympathy they have given us in our work. What a wonderful blessing to us is the American man."

Although dealt a stinging blow in their battle for recognition by the federation, suffrage advocates were still hopeful of ultimate victory. The setback came in the unanimous adoption of the report of the committee on rules which gives to the committee the same arbitrary powers conferred on it two years ago at San Francisco.

The suffragist, however, after a poll of the committee, were hopeful of favorable action by that body.

A serious break in the federation is threatened by the suffrage battle. Mrs. Pennybacker has received a telegram from Mrs. Horace Bruck, honorary president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, warning the federation that if it admits political clubs to full membership, there would be an immediate break in the national organization caused by the withdrawal of the opponents of such action.

There are 1,716 delegates entitled to vote at the convention and the suffragists claim a majority of these. The suffragists claim also that a poll of the six members of the resolutions committee shows four of them in favor of the endorsement of suffrage.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the federation, announced today that the question of woman suffrage would receive the fullest consideration at the convention.

Mrs. Pennybacker said that the subject would probably come up this afternoon at the educational conference and that resolutions which might be presented at that time may be presented to the resolutions committee, and that a report to the convention on them would be made Saturday morning.

FIGHT TO SAVE FLUME FROM FLOOD

Ranches and Lives in Danger of Colorado River Oerflow.

[illegible] several days of anxiety and ceaseless work to restrain the flood waters of the Colorado river, a final stand was made today to prevent the Encina flume, one of the most endangered points in the irrigation system, being washed away.

If the flume goes out, it will mean that ranches west of New River will be without water, and loss of life may follow. J. C. Allison, chief engineer of the California Development Company, was ready early today with a large number of men, 5,000 sacks, timbers, steam shovels, a pile driver and teams to make a last effort to save the flume. The men threw up a false bulkhead about each end of the flume, where it crosses the river and continued to rip rap.

At Volcano levee, shifts of men worked all night to prevent a large section of the dyke from being washed away. A small break in the levee occurred early yesterday and additional men were hurried there to prevent further damage.

After today the worst of the flood will be over, those in charge of the work believe the crest of the flood waters will have been reached early today.

At Needles and other points further up the river reports early today stated that it was believed that the crisis was believed to have been passed.

RAILROAD RUSHES MEN.

Two miles north of Topock the river began to widen and threatened to cut a new channel. The Santa Fe railroad hurried men to the scene to aid in conquering the turbulent waters. The flood waters there threatened to cut the railroad tracks and wash into the company's big pumping plant. Cars were loaded with rock and sacks of sand, ready to dump into the river. It is believed unusually high water will continue until Saturday.

Telegrams from Needles, Cal., stated there was little change in the flood conditions there except that at a point ten or fifteen miles north of that town, the channel of the Colorado had widened until the river was seventeen miles from bank to bank.

A vast acreage in that district, which is creased with old channels of the river, was said to be under water, which at Topock was reported to have reached a depth of sixty feet, thirteen feet deeper than it was at the height of the flood last year. Rivermen at Needles expected a continuation of flood conditions for several days.

Divine Won't Make Divorcee Wife Again; Wedding Party Waits

BALTIMORE, Md., June 12.—The refusal at the last moment last night by Rev. Dr. Robert P. Kerr, a prominent local Presbyterian clergyman, to officiate at the marriage of Mrs. Alice Gerry Stewart, daughter of the late Elbridge Gerry of New York, to Francis Baylies Griswold of New York, caused consternation among the wedding party assembled at Mrs. Stewart's residence.

Dr. Kerr, who returned from Princeton last night, notified the couple that on his return he found letters from members of his congregation protesting against his performing the ceremony on the ground that Mrs. Stewart was a divorced woman. In consequence, Dr. Kerr said, he must refuse to officiate.

Rev. W. A. Price, another Presbyterian clergyman, was induced to take Dr. Kerr's place.

Mrs. Stewart was divorced in Paris last year from David Stewart, a lawyer and clubman of this city. Mr. Stewart later married again.

Griswold is socially prominent in New York.

'WHO'S WHO' NOT ALL EMBRACING

Value of 1914 List Sums to Lie in Suggestion Through Exclusion.

The principal value of "Who's Who" for 1914 seems to lie in suggestion. One reads the lists of those who are Who and irresistably one thinks of scores of those who are also Who, but are not listed. There are more of them than there are of the "Who's" and their claims to distinction seem quite as important as those of many of the "Whos. It is possible that the happy suggestion of a recent humorist to compile a volume of "Who is Also Who," may be seriously considered. For although there are thirty-nine prominent Oakland men and women in "Who's Who," there are thirty-nine prominent others who are not in "Who's Who."

There is of course Senator Perkins, and there are also Victor Metcalf, former Secretary of the Navy, Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, and John P. Irish, and F. M. Smith looms large among the financiers. But the Havens are missed and Philip Bowles is left out.

HONORED WITH BIOGRAPHIES.

Four clergymen and two librarians of Oakland are honored with brief biographies. They are Rev. F. L. Goodspeed, Rev. Walter Frear, Rev. Mardon Wilson, Rev. Henry K. Sanborne, Librarian Charles D. Greene.

Douglas Tilden, sculptor and Xavier Martinez, painter, are among local representatives of the arts, and for literary distinction there are Jessie Juliet Knox, Herbert Bashford, Mary E. Bamford, Maynard Shipley, with lists of what they'd written. Also Herman Whittaker.

Several rear admirals, retired, are in the Oakland showing, Admiral Thomas Phelps, Admiral George F. Kutz, and Admiral Albert B. Willits, while General Oscar Fitzalan Long, General Sedgwick Pratt, and General William Dougherty, retired lend added distinction, with Edward H. Campbell, "naval officer."

AMONG LEGAL LIGHTS.

Among lawyers, Warren Olney, Judge Harry Melvin, Judge Fred Henshaw, Fred Stratton, Frank E. Hinckley, George W. Reed, Guy C. Earl, Judge Jesse J. Dunn and William R. Davis are listed. Charles Butters, mining engineer, and Charles Burckhalter, astronomer are in the "B's."

Consul Wilbur T. Gracey, ex-director of the Mint; Frank Leach, former Governor Pardee, with Charles A. Smith, Arthur Pillsbury, miscellaneous, Charles W. Smiley, researcher; Sara Lemmon, botanist and Chew Ng. Foon, editor, complete the showing. It is a distinguished list, but any one will see that it leaves still a distinguished list of "Who Are Also Who."

LEE TO MAKE KIDNAPING CHARGE

Accused Man's Attorney Denounces Arrest by Burns Detectives as Outrage.

[illegible] kidnaping will probably be made against operatives of the Burns Detective Agency, Guy Wilkinson and J. K. Hutchinson, of the Foreign Mineral Investment Company as the result of the alleged arrest yesterday of Henry C. Lee, one of those prominent in the Searles Lake Potash war. Lee was surreptitiously smuggled into an automobile as he was walking along Powell street [illegible] slipped on board the Owl which arrived in Los Angeles this morning. He is accused of issuing a check on a bank in which he had no funds. Attorney Bert Schlessinger said today that Lee's arrest was an outrage and that as soon as he returned to this city steps will be taken to prosecute several people for kidnaping.

"In addition to that," Schlessinger declared, "we will bring suit charging conspiracy. This will be filed in the state court, I believe, within a week. We may also have some action to bring in the Federal court. As to that I cannot say at this time. Lee has been hounded until he has determined to turn on his accusers. As the result of his last arrest, and the taking of pictures of him by the police, he has been greatly humiliated. These photos have been circulated all over the country and sent to his friends and we are going to take action against the men responsible."

Detective Harry Lubbock of the Burns agency and J. B. Campbell of the Los Angeles district attorney's office, took Lee into custody on Powell street while he was walking with H. W. Lake of Bandon, Ore. He was rushed in an automobile to San Jose and thence back to Niles, where arrangements were made to slip him through the canyon and onto the fast train for the south.

The fight between the Foreign Mines Development Company and the claimants to the Searles Lake property, which covers 40,000 acres, had often been a strenuous one and at one time armed camps kept the vigil in the south during the struggle for the possession of the property. The war has been waged since 1910.

ONCE MORE ARRAIGNED.

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—Henry Lee, attorney for a group of claimants to potash deposits in San Bernardino county, who was arrested yesterday in San Francisco and whisked out of the city in an automobile, appeared in a township court here today to answer a charge of having passed a bad check upon a hotel keeper. Lee was hurried out of San Francisco in an automobile to avoid further habeas corpus proceedings, by means of which he had previously obtained freedom.

When arraigned here today the attorney said it was the eight time he had been arrested on the same charge, which, he declared, was the result of bickering and disputes over the ownership of the potash deposits. He was released under bail of $1000 and his preliminary hearing set for June 19.

According to the complaint in the case the check involved amounted to $20 and was four years old when it was cashed.

The contest over the potash deposits has been waged for several years. Several times the claims have been turned into armed camps, but each time peace officers were able to prevent battles between the opposing gunmen.

Selected Governor Of Reserve Board

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Thomas B. Jones, a Chicago lawyer, former member of the Princeton university trustees and a personal friend of President Wilson, has practically been selected for governor of the federal reserve board. It was said unofficially today that his nomination would go to the Senate Monday.

With the nomination of Mr. Jones, the names of Paul M. Warburg, of New York; W. P. G. Harding, of Birmingham, Ala.; A. C. Miller, of San Francisco, and E. C. Simmons, of St. Louis, to be members of the board, are expected to go to the Senate. Secretary McAdoo, and Comptroller Williams of the currency bureau, will be ex-officio members.

It was stated definitely at the White House that the president would formally announce the personnel of the board Monday.

Hero of Great Lakes Found Dead in Home

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., June 12.—Captain Joseph A. Napier, 89 years old, who during his sixty years' career on the Great Lakes saved sixty lives, was found dead in his bed here today.

In 1851 Captain Napier alone rescued thirty-two of the passengers and crew of the schooner Merchant, which foundered off Chicago. In 1877 Congress voted him a medal.

DENVER, June 12.—Police today are guarding the home of Colonel D. C. Dodge, a millinoaire railroad builder, as a result of a mysterious note found at his door late last night, demanding $20,000 by midnight tonight. The note threatens death unless the demand is met and bears the signature "Amateur Black Hand."

Threats to Dynamite Liner Cause Arrest

NEW YORK, June 12.—While arrangements were in progress today for the extradition to this city of Henry Wescott, the young negro arrested last night near Bogota, N. J., charged with attempting to obtain $10,000 under threats of blowing up a Cunard steamer with dynamite, city detectives continued their investigations in their belief that Wescott, or Joseph Burton, as he later admitted his name to be, had the aid of one or more confederates.

Burton is in jail at Hackensack, N. J.

To the New York detectives and secret service men of the West Shore railroad Burton is said to have confessed the authorship of the letters through which arrangements were made for the payment of the $10,000 demanded as immunity for a Cunard line steamer, which the writer declared would be blown up at sea by placing dynamite in the coal.

DEFICIT IS PROBED

Solano Grand Jury Investigates Books of County Recorder Corcoran.

While T. V. Corcoran, recorder of Solano county, whose attempt at suicide by cutting his throat in a local hospital brought him within an inch of death, is recovering slowly, the grand jury of Solano county is meeting at Fairfield to expert his books and to investigate the alleged shortage of $1200 in his accounts, which is believed to have been the cause of the attempted suicide.

No definite statement has been issued by the inquisitorial body.

Corcoran in the meantime is on the road to recovery, having been pronounced out of danger by his physicians two days ago. He will not, however, be able to face the grand jury for several weeks yet, it is declared.

Corcoran was discovered by a nurse after having cut his throat from ear to ear. He pleaded to be allowed to die and was almost unconscious from loss of blood when the severed arteries were repaired. Following the attempt at suicide news of the alleged shortage came from the district attorney's office at Fairfield.

Tar Beds Yield Bones Of Prehistoric Woman

SAVANT PUTS AGE AT TEN CENTURIES

Skeleton Is Only Human Remains Found in Famous Brea Rancho.

[illegible] weeks of examination of the skull and portions of a human skeleton found last January in the famous La Brea tar beds, Professor J. C. Merriam, chief paleontologist of the University of California, announced in Los Angeles, today, the result of his labors and presented his solution of the scientific riddle.

At the Los Angeles museum of history, Science and art in Exposition park, before members of the Board of Supervisors, the board of governors of the academy of sciences and an audience of the general public, Professor Merriam and other parts of the skeleton which has come to be known throughout the world of science as the "Angelus man" were exhibited for public inspection for the first time

A WOMAN OF YEARS.

Besides presenting his conclusions upon the age and origin of the "Angelus man," Professor Merriam's findings constitute a fascinating review of the paleontological treasures of the La Brea tar beds which are located just west of the Los Angeles city limits and which have proven a treasure house of bones of rare prehistoric animals and birds.

In a nutshell, Professor Merriam concludes that the "Angelus man" is somewhere near 10,000 years old, also that the "Angelus man" paradoxically enough, may be a woman.

The famous bones were found in one of the tar pits under the remains of a horse of extinct species. They were buried about seven feet under the surface of the earth, and are the only human bones that so far have been excavated from the La Brea beds. Professor Merriam concludes his report as follows:

MORE RECENT PERIOD.

"A summing up of the available information regarding the age of the human skeleton found in pit ten at Ranch La Brea from all points of view is as follows:

"1—The evidence of geologic occurrence in the asphalt chimney taken by itself counts for relatively little, owing to the peculiar conditions under which these deposits are formed. Insofar as this is of value it suggests an age later than [illegible] Rancho La Brea fauna.

"2—The fauna associated with the human remains in pit ten is quite different from the typical Pleistocene Ranch La Brea fauna, and must have inhabited this region at a different period. The fauna in pit ten is closely related to that of the present or recent period. It is distinctly later in age than the typical Rancho La Brea fauna.

LIKE MODERN MAN.

"3—The characteristics of the human remains, taken by themselves, show a stage of development similar to that of man of the present day and not older than man of the latest Pleistocene time.

"4—The evidence as a whole indicates that the human skeleton from pit ten is of a period much later than the typical Rancho La Brea fauna, the time being either within the recent period or not earlier than the very latest portion of Pleistocene time, immediately preceding the present. The possible association of the human remains with extinct species, such as the giant Teratornis, may indicate some antiquity for the human being, or may indicate comparatively late persistence of birds or animals now extinct in this region.

EVOLUTIONARY TYPE.

"5—Measured in terms of years, it is not possible to give a definite estimate of the age of the skeleton from pit ten it may suffice to state that this person did not live in the period of the Pleistocene, low browed Neanderthal man of Europe. It belongs to the distinctly modern stage of evolution. It does not necessarily belong to the present historic period, but cannot be considered as having antedated it by many thousands of years. The age of this specimen may [illegible] years, but probably not in tens of thousands.

"6—The study of the remains at pit ten is a problem similar to the occurrence of an arrowhead found in a comparatively recent asphalt deposit in the University of California excavations of 1912. The arrowhead was found imbedded in a deposit somewhat similar to that in pit ten and the fauna associated with that in pit ten.

NO COMPLETE CASE.

"7—The final summing up of all evidence relative to the antiquity of the Rancho La Brea skeleton will depend on a very detailed and exhaustive study of the typical Pleistocene Rancho La Brea fauna of the fauna from the later tar deposits like that of pit ten and of the existing fauna of California."

Primitive Dame Has No Mate in Pit or Museums

"The Angelus man is somewhere near 10,000 years old, and [illegible] may be a woman.

"Measured in terms of years, it is not possible to give a definite estimate of the age of the skeleton.

"It may suffice to state that this person did not live in the period of the Pleistocene low-browed Neanderthal man of Europe. He belongs to the distinctly modern stage of Europe.

"The age of this skeleton may perhaps be measured in thousands of years, but probably not in tens of thousands."—Professor J. C. Merriam.

MACCABEES LOSE PIONEER LEADER

Henry L. Ticknor, Organizer of Lodge in California, Dies in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, June 12. — Funeral services were held this afternoon for the late Henry Langford Ticknor, resident of this State for more than half a century and one of the most prominent officials of the Maccabee lodge in the West. The services were conducted by that lodge at a local undertaking parlor. Interment was at Cypress Lawn cemetery.

Born in 1842 at Warren, Ohio, Ticknor [illegible] he enlisted for service in the Civil War in the First California cavalry. Following the war he went first to Ohio, where at Newton Falls, he married in 1868 Miss Alice Camelia Baber. Returning to California he entered the employ of the Wells Fargo company and remained with that corporation until retired on pension in August last year.

In the early 90's Ticknor joined the Maccabee lodge and was among the organizers of the first branch of the order in California. He was advanced rapidly in the organization, being promoted in great camp of California. At the time of his death he was secretary of the Pacific jurisdiction of the lodge. His residence in Berkeley, where his death occurred, was at 2418 Dwight way.

Ticknor is survived by his widow and two children, Miss Clara Ticknor and Henry Ticknor. The family had resided in Berkeley since 1905, when they removed here from San Francisco. The funeral this afternoon followed the Maccabee ritual and was conducted by San Francisco lodge, No. 18.

KNOWLAND'S CARD UNIQUELY POSTED

Placed by Wife in Bottom of Kennedy Gold Mine, the Deepest in U. S.

ALAMEDA, June 12. — The card of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, candidate for United States Senator, gained a unique distinction a few days ago when it was posted by his wife, Mrs. Lucille Knowland, in the bottom of the Kennedy mine, the deepest gold mine in America. The card rests over 4600 feet below the surface of the ground.

Mrs. Lucille Knowland and party are home from a trip to the Kennedy mine in which the Knowland estate is heavily [illegible] a trip of over 400 miles.

The party passed, by actual count, 25 autos, disabled from one reason or another and undergoing repairs on the road. From Stockton the party went to Jackson and on to Mokelumne Hill, made famous by Bret Harte and other early California writers. San Andreas, Angel Camp, Murphy's and the Mariposa big trees were in the itinerary.

The party made a visit to Murphy's Cave, climbing down into the bowels of the earth over 973 wooden steps, succeeded by a series of stone stirs leading to [illegible] shows in startling designs of rock, quartz and crystals the Bridal falls of the Niagara, the Diamond [illegible] and other strikking formations of glittering and variegated rock.

The Kennedy mine is a big affair, running constantly 100 stamps to handle the mine output. Mrs. Knowland also visited the South Eureka mine in which the Knowland estate is also interested. The party autoed over roads which were scarcely passable but made the entire trip without road or car trouble.

TOURISTS TO HOLD ANNUAL SESSION

Convention to Take Place in Berkeley One Week From Saturday.

BERKELEY, June 12. — The Berkeley Chamber of Commerce will co-operate with other citizens in the entertainment of the Tourist Association of the San Francisco Bay and River Counties of California, which will hold the annual meeting of the organization at the Hotel Shattuck Saturday, June 20.

Great interest is being manifested in the work of this organization by the various communities about the bay and by commercial and civic bodies in cities [illegible] of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce President G. L. Schneider spoke of the important plans of the tourist association. For years tourists from eastern states have visited San Francisco only to have their tickets validated, and usually have passed on to the southern part of the State, there to spend the greater part of their vacation. The object of the tourist association is to show these strangers that the country in this part of California possesses many attractions. Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda will share fully in the [illegible] agers of the tourist association.

Alameda county has contributed $9860 to the fund of $42 000 San Francisco has given $20,000, and the other counties make up the balance of the amount required.

Appreciation of the campaign inaugurated by the Tourist Association was expressed last evening by all present, including Directors D. E. Bigelow, T. E. Caldecott, H. H. Camper, T. H. Fallon, H. D. Irwin, C. C. Juster, F. R. Peake, W. A. Shockley and D. J. Williams. Directors F. T. Robson and F. R. Peake are delegates from the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce to the tourist association, and their reports concerning the activities of the organization are most enthusiastic. In addition to publishing books and pamphlets, the association will send representatives to eastern cities in order that persons contemplating a tour of California may be reached before they make up their itinerary, and as far as possible they will be induced to devote a liberal part of their time to the region about the bay of San Francisco and in the great valleys that run into this bay.

In this connection Secretary Drury reported that on the recommendation of the Alameda County Publicity Commissioners, the Supervisors have appropriated $1500 with which to advertise popular points in Alameda county as summer homes for people who live in the warm valleys of the interior of the State.

BerKeley Rainfall Record for Season, Yet Above Normal

BERKELEY, June 12.—Reports on the May weather, just issued by William G. Reed, instructor in climatology at the University of California, show Berkeley's seasonal rainfall record to be still above the normal, which, to the end of the month, is 26.33. Recorded to that time was 32.94 inches of precipitation. The temperatures for the month were lower than those for April, though above the May average. The precipitation for the month was below the normal. The highest temperature was 73 degrees on May 29 and the lowest 47.4 degres on May 6.

BATTLE VICIOUS YAQUI RAIDERS

Town Only Saved by Timely Interference of Traditional Pima Enemies.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 12.—But for the timely interference of a band of Pima Indians from the valley surrounding Cumuripa, Sonora, inhabitants of that town would have fallen victims of Yaqui Indian raiders during recent fighting there, according to reports which reached Douglas today. With the aid of the Pimas, traditional enemies of the Yaquis, but who ordinarily are peaceful farmers, the townspeople managed to drive off their assailants after a battle lasting several days.

At one time the Yaquis held almost half the town and fighting raged from roofs, windows and at short range in the streets. Heavy losses inflicted upon the Yaquis caused them to raze a portion of the town before retreating, as well as to steal every particle of food they could find within a radius of several miles, taking what they were able to carry away.

After burning farm houses and carrying off a number of Mexican women, the Yaquis were said to have retreated toward their stronghold in the Bacatete mountains.

The state government was appealed to during the fighting and, it was stated, twenty-five soldiers were sent to Cumuripa. It is not known, however, whether these reached the town. Later a stronger force was sent, but they did not arrive until several days after the Indians left.

A number of the defenders of the town were killed and wounded, but their losses were not so heavy as those of the Yaquis, it was stated.

FAVOR BONDS TO IMPROVE STREETS

Central Avenue Property Owners Against Assessment Plan in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, June 12. — That the streets of Alameda should be improved by voting bonds was the general sentiment of the mass meeting held last evening in the city hall council chambers by the Central Avenue Property Owners' club. There were about 150 in attendance at the session and all showed much enthusiasm when the speakers advocated the voting of bonds. The club was formally organized after Walter W. Cooley had been named as temporary chairman.

F. N. Delanoy was elected [illegible] The club members are to obtain the signatures of as many property owners as possible to the protest against the improvement of that thoroughfare by assessment of the abutting property. J. A. Powell was named as field captain in obtaining the signatures and he will make a house to house canvass.

The protests will probably be presented at the meeting of the city council next Tuesday night.

When the protests are presented it will be suggested to the council that a bond election be called, as the members of the new club were [illegible] that the issue would carry. E. R. Anthony, W. W. Cooley, R. S. Brown, H. P. Stow, Joseph Forderer, Mayor Frank Otis and J. A. Powell all declared that they were certain that bonds would be voted for street improvements.

All those who addressed the session were also a unit in expressing the opinion that the streets must be improved in order to uphold the reputation that Alameda has fine streets.

Protests were generally signed by those in attendance, asking the city council not to order the improvement by direct assessment of property owners. These protests will not only be taken to the homes, but can be signed at the office of F. N. Delanoy, 2301 Central avenue.

The following motion was also adopted at the meeting:

"It is the sense of this meeting that the city council be requested to employ an engineer to investigate the condition of our streets and outline a general plan of improvements extending over a period of years. And that some equitable method of paying for these improvements be evolved."

This resolution was introduced by R. S. Brown and seconded by W. W. Cooley.

CHILD STAYS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Hotel Magnate and Wife Delay Proceedings; Action Probable.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—A break in the marital relations of Albert Bettens, wealthy hotel owner of San Jose, and Mrs Daisy Lindsay Ricks Bettens, is imminent, and attorneys for both husband and wife admit the probability of a divorce action being filed in the near future.

Differences which have covered a period of several years have been rapidly [illegible] say, but it is understood that Bettens is attempting to stay proceedings as long as possible for the sake of his 9-year-old son, of whom he is extremely fond.

Edward M. Rea, attorney for Bettens, admitted that he did not know how long divorce proceedings could be held off, and for Bettens, who was out of town, he said that the trouble between Bettens and his wife had been of several years' duration and had recently reached a breaking point.

Louis O'Neal, attorney for Mrs. Bettens, refused to admit that there were any developments in the threatened suit for divorce, but his evident interest in the knowledge that the Bettens' family affairs had become public, showed that he had more or less concern regarding what move Bettens intended taking against his wife.

Both Bettens and his wife have spent several months in obtaining evidence against each other to be presented should a suit be filed, say the attorneys, and a series of charges of misconduct are expected on both sides.

SOCIETY WOMAN'S CASE, BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

VISALIA, June 12.—The divorce action of Hazel I. Gray against Donly C. Gray, went to trial yesterday in the superior court before Judge Austin of Fresno county.

The Grays are socially prominent and the defendant wealthy. It is understood that the charges and countercharges are of a sensational nature and the proceedings yesterday were behind closed doors.

Mrs. Gray was on the stand all day. The plaintiff is represented by C. G. Lamberson, G. W. Zarman, J. M. Burke and M. E. Power, and the defendant by E. C. Farnsworth, H. B. McClure and N. F. Bradley.

MARIE LLOYD COMING BACK TO AMERICA

LONDON, June 12.—Marie Lloyd's troubles with the American immigration authorities have not altered her fondness for the American public. She is telling interviewers that the Americans are "really good sports," uses American slang with only an occasional slip-up and promises to make another tour of America with her own vaudeville company after her Australian trip, beginning next year.

"New York is fine," she says. "San Francisco and Chicago are real great, too. Other towns are a bit off. They're all right in their way, but what we English call provincial. Americans I like.

"They are always really good sports," but American officials—oh, dear!"

MISS SUMMERVALE LOSES HER LAWSUIT

NEW YORK, June 12.—Amelia Summerville, whose symmetrical lines have been of more or less use to her in her theatrical career for the last few years, lost a $5000 action for damages for lost symmetry yesterday when City Court Justice Schmuck dismissed her suit against the company which owns the Riverdale Theater.

Miss Summerville sued because the wash basin became dislodged and fell on her in her dressing-room in the theater, causing injuries which "have affected the conformity of her limbs, making one larger than the other, thereby affecting their symmetry, which symmetry was a great asset to her in her profession."

The theater company contended that Miss Summerville was injured through her own negligence.

ENGLISH WOMEN OBSERVE THE TANGO

LONDON, June 12.—The King and Queen saw the tango as danced in New York for the first time last night at a dinner given by the Grand Duke Michael preceding a ball for the Countess Nada Torby at the Grand Duke's residence, Kenwood, Hamstead. The dancers, Maurice and Florence Walton, are the first Americans to appear by royal command to dance. Maurice was once a Bowery denizen, and Florence was formerly a chorus girl.

They danced after dinner in the drawing-room before the ball started. Only thirty persons were present, including Countess Torby, the Duchess of Marlborough, the Countess Nada and Zia Torby, the Grand Duke Paul, the Countess of Granard, the Duke and Duchess of Teck, Premier Asquith and Ambassador Page. They danced for forty-five minutes continuously. They had omitted the tango for fear of the royal displeasure, but the Queen asked Countess Torby: "Can they dance the tango for us? I've never seen it."

So the tango was danced. Florence Walton wore an unslit dress at the request of a court official.

WOMEN CARRY CANES; LATEST FAD

BOSTON, June 12.—The feminine walking stick has arrived in Boston in considerable numbers. Two young women were carrying sticks yesterday right on Tremont street. One was manipulating a slender, shining black silver-mounted article, with a nonchalant flourish and rhythmic rat-a-tat-tat upon the pavements that might well excite the envy of the most accomplished masculine "wearer." The second, who must needs carry her stout yellow bamboo along, even for a few steps from her automobile to a store, slipped the crook handle over her forearm and dangled the cane in the most approved fashion. Others have been seen on Commonwealth avenue.

CUPID AT WHEEL; CAR SPEEDS TO LOVE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—When [illegible] Marin county opened up his motorcycle to sixty miles an hour one Sunday afternoon about a year ago and started in pursuit of a big automobile, the driver of which was trying to beat him into Sonoma county and thus escape arrest for speeding, he little realized that Dan Cupid was tucked away in the tonneau.

But he was. Another occupant of the machine was Miss Gladys M. Deemer of 941 Hayes street, San Francisco. Both driver and Miss Deemer accompanied Donohue back to San Rafael. Miss Deemer paid her fine and left, after assuring [illegible] horrid." Undismayed, the little love god stuck to his task, with the result that Miss Deemer became Mrs. Donohue at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Donohue, in San Rafael last night.

Miss Deemer is the daughter of Mrs. Mabel Sorria of San Francisco. After a honeymoon in the south Donohue and his bride will return to Marin to reside.

'PEG O' MY HEART' STAR IS JEALOUS

Miss Taylor Objects to Miss O'Neill Playing Role in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Lauretta Taylor, fevered with jealousy of Peggy O'Neill, who has taken her place in the title role of "Peg o' My Heart," has started a commotion here that bids fair to run the most lucrative production of modern years into sterility.

Lauretta Taylor, on the stage; Mrs. J. Hartley Manners, wife of the author, in private life, has two clauses in her contract, the carrying out of both of which is impossible.

One clause calls for her appearance as star in the piece, and no one else, in New York, Chicago, Boston and London. The [illegible] calls for her appearance in "Barbaraza," a new play by her husband, within three years of the first production of "Peg."

Since she has already starred for two years on Broadway in the part of "Peg" and the other cities named claim indefinite bookings of the play simultaneously, it is obviously impossible that Mrs. Manners can play Peg in Boston, Chicago and London at the same time and yet star in Barbaraza.

MISS O'NEILL ENGAGED.

Oliver Morosco, realizing the situation, engaged Miss O'Neill to play the lead in the Chicago production. Mrs. Manners cares not for contradictory contracts. But on one thing she is insistent. Miss O'Neill must not play the part of Peg in Chicago. Her husband is with her, while Morosco, backed by Attorney Carroll Allen of Los Angeles, insists that Miss O'Neill be starred in Chicago.

The courts will decide the matter. Meanwhile Morosco, Manners and Mrs. Manners have had all night conferences at which no agreement was reached.

Mrs. Manners confines her arguments mostly to invective directed against Miss O'Neill, the girl who was discovered and put out on the road with instant success by Oliver Morosco.

And Mrs. Manners says:

"This insolent praise of an upstart girl by critics who have never seen the creator of the role is an insult and an indignity.

But Miss O'Neill will play "Peg o' My Heart" in Chicago.

Miss O'Neill appeared in the role recently in Oakland.

SYNDICATE BOND DEAL IN COURT

Three Creditors Prepare Bankruptcy Suit Which Trustee Deplores.

Declaring that in their belief the transfer of Realty Syndicate property to the Realty Syndicate Company, on February 28, as part of the reorganization of the corporation, is an effort to avoid responsibility for obligations incurred by the sale of the "Realty Sixes," bonds issued by the former concern, three Oakland creditors are now preparing a suit to declare the Syndicate bankrupt. The papers were filed yesterday in the court of Federal Judge Dooling, and fifteen days has been set as the time for preparing data.

The complainants in the present suit are C. W. Gibson, his son, H. D. W. Gibson, and Alexander Murdock, officials of the Crescent Investment Company of this city. The three hold claims in the "Realty Six" bonds aggregating $14,653.

BANKRUPTCY IS AIM.

"Ever since this reorganization," declared C. W. Gibson, "I have been trying to get my money back, or some security for it. I was always informed that there now it protects my holdings. The Realty Syndicate, which guarantees by bonds, has nothing but stock in the Realty Syndicate Company, another corporation with the same officers. I charge that this is a direct attempt to avoid debts. I am suing for a bankruptcy judgment, and am willing to take my chances on a bankruptcy sale."

Officers of the Realty Syndicate and the trustees who are engaged in a readjustment of the F. M. Smith holdings, declare that the suit is ill advised and tected.

"The work of rehabilitating the Realty Syndicate is well in hand," said John S. Drum, one of the committee of reorganization. "Of the outstanding obligations of the syndicate $2,000,000 are secured. There is an unsecured indebtedness of $4,000,000 and $3,700,000 of all these claims are at the present time in our vaults."

STABLE, HE BELIEVES.

"The fact that the aggregate claims of the petitioners amount to but $14,625 shows on what a slender basis this suit is filed. We resent this action because o fthe unnecessary flurry incident to it. Exact understanding of the finances of the syndicate would remove all uneasiness from the creditors of the corporation."

W. W. Garthwaite, also of the rehabilitation committee, declares that ample provision is being made to care for the "Realty Sixes." He states that in his belief the suit is filed at a most inopportune time.

The committee reorganizing the Realty Syndicate and refunding its indebtedness through the Realty Syndicate Company S. Drum, Mortimer Fleishhacker, W. W. is made up of Frank B. Anderson, John Garthwaite and C. O. G. Miller.

HOTEL READY TO GREET 'GREETERS'

Bonifaces of Nation Will Be Guests in Oakland Tomorrow.

"Greeting to the Greeters" will be the motto of the day tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland, when one hundred and fifty hotel men from all sections of the United States, delegates to the recent convention of "The Greeters Association" in Los Angeles, will be the guests of Manager Victor Reiter at luncheon.

The luncheon will be followed by an automobile tour of the city and environs, terminating at the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley.

The visit of the hotel men to this city is in response to invitations extended several weeks ago by Victor Reiter, the Oakland Commercial Club effort was made at the Los Angeles convention to bring the next annual meeting of the organization to Oakland or San Francisco, and it was hoped that the present visit would be a preliminary call before a longer stay in 1915. Philadelphia was chosen, however, as the next convention city and this will be the only opportunity to welcome the "glad-handers" of the hostelries

LAWYER FAILS; COIN IS TOSSED

Councilmen Read Opinion, Then "Flip" to Ascertain Its Meaning

CHICAGO, June 12. — It required the toss of a coin yesterday for a city council committee to interpret the meaning of an opinion given by the municipality's legal department.

This happened at a meeting of the gas oil and electric light committee after an opinion was read on the right of the Chicago Telephone Company to install an attachment to replace "nickel first" appliances.

THREE ALDERMEN PUZZLED.

"I don't understand what the opinion means," said Alderman Bowler.

"It's not clear to me either," spoke up Alderman Long.

"To much for me, what does it hold?" asked Alderman Merriam.

As no answer was forthcoming Alderman Long turned to Alderman Bowler, saying:

"We will toss up a nickel. If you win say what you think is meant. I will do the same if I win."

BOWLER WINS; DECIDES.

The coin was tossed. Alderman Bowler won. He said he believed the opinion was meant to convey the idea that if the attachment was an insmprovement the company had the right to install it without the consent of the suoscribers. Some subscribers present denied it was an improvement.

The company is required to abolish the "nickel first" device to comply with a city ordinance.

The committee adopted a resolution offered by Alderman Merriam calling upon the commissioner of public devices to [illegible] ings, ownership and interrelationship of all telephone, electric light and power, and gas companes in the city.

MAN'S NEW THUMB WAS RABBIT'S LEG

Sufferer From Bone Malady Also Borrows Quart of Blood.

CLEVELAND June 12.—With a rabbit's hind leg for a thumb bone and a quart of another man's blood in his veins Bertrand Williams, 35 years old, is recovering from what physicians say was one of the most delicate operations of its kind ever performed here.

Last fall Williams came to Glenville Hospital suffering from a peculiar bone malady. His right foot was affected. After a number of examinations the leg was amputated just below the knee. Dr. Theodore B. Breck, No. 929 East One Hundred and Fifth street, performed the operation.

A few weeks ago Williams returned to the hospital with the same peculiar affection in his hand. On examination it was found that his blood had also been [illegible] of the hands. Dr. Breck called into consultation Dr. H. D. Fowler, and it was decided to replace the bone.

The hind leg of the healthy rabbit was obtained and the bone put in place of the affected bone, which extended from the first joint of the left thumb to the wrist joint.

The ligaments and muscles were attached and the wound healed rapidly. The physicians feared that the tainted blood would carry the infection to another spot, so it was decided to replace most of Williams' blood also.

Jacob Mahring of No. 1462 East One Hundred and Fifteenth street, a friend of Williams, volunteered to give a quart of his blood. A like amount of Williams' blood was drained off and Mahring's blood transferred to his friend's veins successfully.

SOUTHERN WOMEN HEAR KNOWLAND

Congressman Will Speak Sunday at Sonoma Bear Flag Celebration.

According to a wire received from Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, now in Los Angeles, today he addressed the Friday Morning Club of Los Angeles. This club is the largest women's organization in the south, having a membership of nearly 1500. He addressed the Los Angeles Realty board today at noon.

Mrs. Knowland left for Los Angeles last evening and will start her campaign on her husband's behalf in the south addressing women's clubs and kindred organizations. Knowland will return to Oakland, tomorrow morning and leave Sunday morning for the town of Sonoma, to participate in the celebration [illegible] Native Sons of the Golden West at the unveiling of the Bear Flag monument on Sunday afternoon.

A big Knowland rally will be held in Richmond under the auspices of the Republicans of that city on Tuesday evening, June 16, in the auditorium of the Lincoln School. Excursion trains will be run from Martinez and Antioch and an effort will be made to have the meeting the largest political gathering ever held in the history of Contra Costa county.

The meeting is being given in recognition of Knowland's work in Congress on behalf of the Richmond harbor project and to give him an opportunity to address as many of Contra Costa voters as possible. Several committees are being appointed to take charge of the various details of the affair.

WOODEN LEG IS RULED AS WEARING APPAREL

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 12.—The Ohio industrial commission has ruled that a wooden leg is wearing apparel. George F. Reufel of Cleveland applied for state compensation for the loss of a leg but it was shown that it was a wooden leg that had been crushed in the machinery.

Reufel claimed that the law did not specify that the leg must be a natural one to entitle the victim to compensation. Then the commission decided that the leg was not a leg, but apparel.

EXPERT STUDIES ANTIOCH RAILWAY

Concern Is in Good Condition, He Reports of Physical Equipment.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Elon J. Arnold, the traffic expert of Chicago, who was called in consultation in connection with improving the service of the United Railroads, has been engaged for a week in appraising the properties of the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern [illegible] road and leaves tonight for his home.

It is generally rumored that Arnold's investigations have been at the joint behest of the directors of the concern and the management of the Western Pacific railroad. Arnold would not affirm nor deny this morning the report that the Western Pacific was responsible for his being here, but he did say that the Western Pacific was interested in his opinion of the value of the Oakland & Antioch property.

Arnold was in consultation this morning with local directors of the Oakland & Antioch and following his meeting with them made the following statement.

IN POOR REPAIR.

"I have been here a week looking over the line and appraising the property. I find them very valuable holdings and for the most part in first class condition. I am very well satisfied with the result of my work. I have been over the properties of the company in Oakland, where I spent two days, and I believe there is a great future for this railroad. Whether or not the Western Pacific is interested in my coming I am not at liberty to state. I can, however, say that I came here at the request of the directors of the company and not at the behest of Eastern stockholders."

"Isn't it true that the Western Pacific's desire to acquire the Oakland & Antioch so that their trains can be routed over that line from Sacramento to Oakland, was responsible for your being retained to put a valuation on the road?" was a question.

"I could not go so far as to say that, or to make any statement about the Western Pacific other than that they would naturally gain a great advantage by a traffic agreement with the Oakland & Antioch people. I am very well pleased with the condition of the road and with everything I have seen of its assets. I have just had my last conference with the directors and leave tonight for Chicago."

RAILROAD MAN IN COLLEGE AT 46

E. J. McVann Completes Education; Suspended at 16 Years.

OMAHA, Neb., June 12.—The spectacle of a busy man, who draws four times the salary of the governor of Nebraska, attending college with his own son has just been concluded at Creighton University by the award of a degree in law to E. J. McVann, manager of the Traffic Bureau of the Omaha Commercial Club. His son, Donald, is a freshman in the same school.

McVann, at the age of sixteen, entered Creighton 31 years ago. He came to Omaha from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He was poor, and after attending about a year, ran out of funds.

"I could have kept on and finished," he says, "but it would have meant that my father would go in rags to educate me, and I would not have it so."

The young fellow went back to Iowa and went to work. Law degrees or no degree, he would make good. Soon he [illegible] rate problems. For fifteen years he was engaged in the work with the Pennsylvania Railroad, and with the different roads at Omaha and Lincoln.

TRAFFIC BUREAU MANAGER.

Then he became secretary of the Commercial Club of Sioux City. From there he came to Omaha as secretary of the Omaha Grain Exchange. He jumped from this to secretary of the Commercial Club at Omaha. In 1901 he was secretary of the Dubuque Business Men's League.

Five years ago he found his berth when he landed the position of manager of the Traffic Bureau in Omaha. This is a man's job. His salary has been increased until he is getting four times as much as the governor of Nebraska.

It was only in the last year or two since he has been one the busiest and one of the highest salaried men in Omaha, that he has finally forced himself to find time to complete the course he started in Creighton thirty-one years ago. By wedging in a few hours both in day and night school, he has completed his course and received the degree of bachelor of laws. The diploma from this school admits him to the bar in Nebraska.

McVann is known to every member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and to every rate expert of importance in the East and South. He did not wait for his law degree before he faced lawyers in serious cases. For years he has argued and battled on important rate cases against the ablest lawyers in the country in the state and federal courts, and before the Interstate Commerce Commission, as well as before state railway commissions.

It was E. J. McVann who, four years ago, secured the reduction of the freight rates on Southern pine lumber to Nebraska and the Northwest. The railroads had arbitrarily raised the rates from 25 cents per hundred to 26¼ cents. McVann took the matter before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and after a long fight, succeeded in getting the commission to declare 25 cents an adequate rate.

Two years ago, when the roads again attempted to raise rates, it was McVann who succeeded in tying up the proposed increase so that it is tied up to the present day.

Impostor Clergyman To Serve Four Years

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12—George A. Barker, who while posing as a clergyman, victimized several ministers in Oakland recently, was sentenced to four years in San Quentin for forgery in the superior court here today. Barker, who went under the alias of the Rev. George A. Wright, ingratiated himself into the confidence of several clergymen and was finally caught through the efforts of the Rev. Clifton Macon, rector of Trinity church, Oakland. He was found guilty of forgery.

ARRANGE FUNERAL OF CIVIL WAR VETERAN

The funeral of Stephen Tilley, a veteran of the Civil War and a pioneer of California, will be held tomorrow morning from the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist Church. Rev William C. Spencer, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Last Tuesday Tilley died in the King's Daughters' Home, where he was an inmate. He was born in Washington county, Arkansas, December 10, 1843. During the latter part of the Civil War he served as a ranger on the plains of Texas and Mexico, when he returned to Washington county, where he engaged in agriculture.

Stephen Tilley left a widow, Mrs. Anna Tilley, and four sons, Herffe L., Denver B., Martin J. and Cole B. Tilley, also a daughter, Miss Taska Tilley.

The body will be cremated.

MANUAL TRAINING HAS GRADUATING EXERCISES

Judge George E. Crothers, of San Francisco, addressed the members of the graduating class of the Manual Training and Commercial high school last evening in Chabot hall, where about seventy-two boys and girls received their diplomas. The exercises were presided over by P. M. Fisher, principal of the school. The student speakers were Miss Flora Rouleau, Robert Miller and Edward Nelson.

A musical program was rendered by the school orchestra and choral society. The diplomas were presented by A. C. Barker, superintendent of schools. Rev. J. B. Orr offered the invocation.

COURT SENDS BOY HOME WITH FATHER HE FEARS

AKRON, O., June 12.—Witnesses in justice court shuddered when Max Moulton, 15, removed his shirt and showed welts and bruises on his body, said to have been inflicted by his father, Frank Moulton, manager of the Akron employment bureau.

The boy told the court that his father chained him to a post and whipped him with a heavy rope, and that he frequently has trouble when his father talks about his mother, from whom he was divorced four years ago.

Moulton was fined $20 and costs on a charge of cruelty to a minor. Though the boy begged not to be sent home, the court ordered him to accompany his father.

All Communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must bear the signature and address of the writer.

VALUE OF CONVENTIONS.

Editor TRIBUNE—Will you kindly permit me the privilege of your column to ask one question in regards to our Auditorium. In preface to my inquiry, I want to tell you of an incident that I am fully acquainted with. There is residing in our fair city today a gentleman, wife and family who previously were residents of Minneapolis. The lady pre- [illegible] the Public Schools, and as such attended a convention several years ago, of the National Convention at Baltimore. Among the speakers that addressed the convention was one who was introduced by the chairman as from that grand State of California destined to become one of the grandest states of the Union. The gentlemen to whom I refer was our late Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Fred Campbell. He was given a grand welcome. His first remarks were these: "Ladies and gentlemen, I am from California and I am proud of it. But there is one spot [illegible] is my own city Oakland." It was Mr. Campbell whom I first heard use that term "My City Oakland." Well, the lady to whom I refer in this letter was so impressed by Mr. Campbell's address that she promised herself that she would take a trip to California. A few years later she married a business man of St. Paul and they made the trip to California on their honeymoon. After spending some time in Southern California they came to Oakland and called to see Mr. Campbell. To make my story brief. She was so impressed with Oakland, that today her husband is one of our best business men [illegible] her daughter, a most lovely young lady is attending the High School. The lady herself is one of our most progressive members of the Ebell and other societies and is always in the front ranks working for the developing and improving Oakland. This Mr. Editor is the object of my addressing you, to show what conventions accomplish and what splendid results can be obtained by us all pulling together towards anything that will improve our beautiful city. This same lady, who was influenced by Mr. Campbell's remarks to visit our city has herself been instrumental in bringing several families here from the East. Let me appeal to Mr. Knocker, and others who are always viewing things from the dark side of life. I do not have to appeal to the ladies they are always on the progressive side. That is why they are in the majority in our fair city. It is those who are continually finding fault with everybody and everything, those of the suspicion that everything is graft, and that every public official is corrupt, why? Let me ask right now, when have we had a mayor or an administration that has accomplished so much, that has been done this last ten or twelve years. [illegible] to Mayor Mott and his administration for the beautiful city we have. Now Mr. Editor let me ask the question would those who are opposed to our bonds like to draw down the curtain on all that has been made beautiful? Would they like to have still the old City Hall and remove Lakeside Park and the beautiful Sunday concerts, the improvements on our beautiful lake and all the other splendid improvements accomplished? No, Mr. Editor, they would not, no one but likes progress. Then let us all join together and make this, (as she is and always will be the queen city of the Pacific Coast.

URGES PROTECTION.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: As a constant reader of your valuable paper I read the article of June 9, entitled "Voice Protest Against Planing Mill Permit," signed by Mrs. Thomas F. Watson and Mrs. H. J. Husky.

Allow me to add that the property owners in the vicinity of Fortieth, Opal and Manila streets have been before the coun- [illegible] strong, pleading for protection against the establishment of lumber yards, planing mills and other industrial and objectionable institutions in the before named district. We sincerely believe that the vicinity of Mosswood Park and the Manual Training High school and the neighborhood of any other park or school where the city of Oakland has expended a great amount of money, and where the city will be compelled to spend large sums should be protected against any and all invasion that will tend to decrease the value of property and totally destroy the beauty of [illegible]

HOW ABOUT SALUTE?

EDITOR TRIBUNE: How about that salute to the flag? This is not a clamor for war—far from it. But what has become of that terse order "Salute that flag or fight," which this nation sent to Huerta recently? No one has saluted and no one, as far as I can see, intends to. What shall we call this weakness of ours—this evil which seems to become more deep-rooted momentarily? [illegible] a whoop and hurrah and yet to this day we have received no indemnity and [illegible] of the American citizens which formed part of the ship's crew. We brought enough disgrace upon us in that affair to blight us for ages, and yet are we drawing upon us the laughs and snickers of the world again because of our laziness or lack of backbone to do what we say.

If we don't intend to keep our word why do we keep sending "ultimatums," and "final notices?" Why not keep our hands off or do a clean [illegible] done? Are we talking automatoms that disgorge by the ton and when the moment for decisive action comes we slink back into our shells?

As has been stated in your columns, Mexico is not worth one of our fighting boy's life, yet over a score have now been killed and that flag has NOT BEEN SALUTED.

A short review of the Virginius Affair and the Mexican affair of today will show a striking similarity in revealing the fact that we as a nation, when it comes to international diplomacy, have no backbone whatever. In the affair of '73 our tern- [illegible] yet the undisputed fact remains that little England did more to stop the further murder of the ship's [illegible] Spain to give up the ship [illegible] UNITED STATES of America [illegible] It was our citizens principally [illegible] and yet, then as now, we never had enough spunk to do what we said we would.

"If Spain cannot redress these outrages the United States will," was [illegible] our minister at Spain received shortly after the English ship "Niobe" rescued the 93 sailors who were still alive. Any [illegible] which seemed filled with determination and backbone, had proceeded from one of the world's greatest nations, and was sure of fulfillment, but so weak has been our word throughout our existence that Spain must have known it, for didn't she slight and belittle the immensity of the affair and even promote the man who killed our citizens?

We MUST DO one of two things: either make Huerta salute that flag, as we said he should, or take back our order, as every weak-boned little nation should. God bless the A. B. C. talk at Niagara and the Peace conferences, and may they with due forethought and deliberation befitting our great nation, serve notice to [illegible] as the [illegible] of personal liberty and freedom go in and DO what we said we would.

ROY MOORE CONFIDENT OF BEATING WILLIE FITZSIMMONS

Azevedo and White to Battle Over 20-Round Route in San Francisco.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER)

The Wheelmen Club has completed arrangements for a rattling good program next Wednesday night, with Willie Fitzsimmons who recently beat Monte Attell over the ten-round route, matched with Roy Moore, the idol of San Francisco. Charley Cleaver, manager of Moore, has offered to bet that his man can stop Willie's winning streak.

The ten-round go between George Christian and Willie Meehan promises to be full of action. In their six rounds at the West Oakland Club these fellows there should be a knockout.

Nabisco and Freitas have been matched for six rounds. These boys met at the last Wheelmen show for four rounds and the bout was a draw. The extra two rounds will put a further test on the boys, and one or the other of them should be able to get the best of it.

Three four-round preliminaries have been arranged. Whitey Smith, the new newsboy idol, will meet Willie Hoppe the Second. Joe Bosco, a new arrival from Brazil, who shows the marks of [illegible] lucky the newsboy's paperweight, Young Rivers will box four rounds with Young Turner, who will be remembered as appearing frequently in the old Reliance Club.

A wire from Nate Lewis who is managing Charley White, to Jimmy Coffroth practically assures a bout between White and Azevedo, for the latter part of next month.

The bout has been under consideration for some time, but not until Coffroth's last offer did White come into line. Azevedo's end has been settled and all that is now left is the signing of the articles.

The exact date of the match will be decided in the near future and Charley White will arrive in San Francisco two weeks before the bout. Lewis also made inquiries in his telegram as to the possible date of his bout with the champion but Coffroth has decided to make no plans for that match until after the Ritchie-Welsh meeting in London on July 4th.

A wire from Jack Kearns, manager of Bill Murray, says that the middleweight will leave New York today and will come direct to San Francisco to start training for his bout with George Chip on July 4.

The Clabby-McGoorty match, which will take place on Uncle Sam's birthday in Australia will narrow the middleweight proposition down to one bout between the winner of this and the winner of the Murray-Chip bout and we will once more have a middleweight champion in sight.

QUIMET QUALIFIES FOR THE ENGLISH FINALS

TROON, Scotland, June 12.—Excellent cards were returned today in the second round of 18 holes of the qualifying stake for the British open golf championship. Francis Ouimet, American open champion, completed his second 18 holes in 77 which with his score of yesterday of 77 made his total 154. This places him well within the hundred players qualified for the final.

Harry Vardon, the British professional took 76, making his total 152.

James Braid, the Scottish player, did today's round in 75 for a total of 151.

Edward Ray did 75, finishing with a total of 150. Harold Weber of Toledo has little chance of being among the hundred players entitled to participate in the championship proper of 72 holes at Prestwick. His score today was 87 and his total 171.

YACHTSMEN FACE THE BRISK WINDS

SANDY HOOK, N. J., June 12.—A brisk southwester, that grudgingly followed on the heels of a thunderstorm, early today promised brisk winds for the third race of the America's cup sloops off Sandy Hook. A fifteen mile beat to windward and return was ordered by the regatta committee.

Resolute was first to make sail. Vanitie hoisted her big sails within the Horseshoe.

The Defiance lay nearby making ready to go to City Island for further adjustment of her rigging.

BILLY MURRAY WINS OVER McCOY

NEW YORK, June 12.—Billy Murray of California earned a popular decision over Al McCoy of Brooklyn, claimant of the middleweight championship title in a ten round bout here. Murray weighed 150 pounds and McCoy 157.

There was little class to the contest as McCoy slatted most of his time

DIAMOND FLASHES

By L. B. GROSS.

McCredie used four twirlers against the Oaks. Evans, Reiger, Martinoni and Hanson, and none of them was able to stop the hitting of Christian's men.

Pitcher Evans' trouble started when he walked the first man up, and then failed to gather Zacher's bunt. In the third inning said troubles came to an end after he had hit two men, walked one, and allowed a hit.

Christian used Ness at second and Gardner at first. The combination seemed to work nicely.

Los Angeles went from third place to the lead by yesterday's victory, while the Seals and Tigers both dropped one notch. The Angels and Seals battle for first place today, with Venice 1 out of the lead.

Some party in Portland yesterday, 16 runs, 16 hits, and no errors.

According to San Francisco papers, the Seals are not hitting as they should. Wednesday only two of them hit, yesterday but one Seal made a safety.

Del Howard was out of the game yesterday with a lame back. Chappie Charles taking his place on first.

There were two balloon ascensions in Portland. The first was when the Beavers made 7 errors and allowed sixteen runs. The other was a scheduled affair which is being held in connection with the rose carnival.

Every Oak got one or more runs yesterday, and Roxy Middleton was the only one who did not hit the ball. Jack Ness made five hits out of five times to bat, and Kaylor got four out of four times at the plate.

Eight innings of yesterday's Angel-Seal game were run-less, all three of the tallies being made in the seventh.

With a chance of tying up the score in the seventh, the Seals tried a squeeze play, but Jerry Downs, who was at bat fell down completely. Jerry missed the ball, and O'Leary was trapped off third and tagged out. The mormer ended up the inning by striking out.

The Tigers missed going into first place by six runs, just the number which Powell was responsible for. Gregory, the ex-Oak, opposed the veteran twirler in the box.

Both pitchers in the south were frequently in hot water, but Gregory received slightly better support than did Powell.

GOLFERS CROWD HERE FOR INVITATIONAL DAY AT CLAREMONT

HOPPE 2-1 FAVORITE OVER SALVADORE

Willie Hoppe, the four-round favorite, will meet Sally Salvadore of Sacramento tonight at Dreamland Pavilion as the main event of the weekly four-round show. Hoppe has been out of the game for a couple of months and is coming back against one of the toughest boys on the coast. The betting at present is 2-1 in favor of Hoppe.

Otto Berg will make his first start in several months against Soldier Nelson.

The rest of the card is as follows:

Frankie Gage vs. Herb Brodie, 135 pounds, Willie Meehan vs. Sailor Jack Carroll, heavyweights, Frankie Jones vs. Willie Robinson, 133 pounds; Jap Korginah vs. Leo Pichi, 125 pounds, Peter Peterson vs. Young McKenna, 116 pounds, and Puggy Donovan vs. Frankie Holmes, 133 pounds.

BOY DEFEATS KAHANAMOKU.

HONOLULU, T. H., June 12.—Duke Kahanamoku, holder of half a dozen world's swimming records, finished fourth here in a fifty-yard open water competition. William Grace, a young novice, won. The time was 0:22 2-5.

Billy Fitz Says, Says he:

Those of you who may have read this column Tuesday will realize that those sixteen runs behind Jack Killilay in the north yesterday were accomplished with malice aforethought, and not as the result of accident. We tipped it off the other day that the next time Killilay started the Oaks intended to make a desperate effort to score repeatedly behind him, and smash forever the Killilay "hard-luck" bugaboo. Truth to tell, the slender twirler had his last chance to make good yesterday, and the team was made to realize that they were in a measure responsible for the fact that Killilay had not been winning his share of games.

"Let's go to the bat for Killilay," was the word passed out by the veterans on the train going up to Portland. The watchword was slipped to every member of the club. Well, Killilay worked yesterday and pitched winning ball as he has done before at times when the club couldn't get a man to second base behind him. Right off the reel yesteruay Christian's Clumbers began slugging the ball, and they never stopped until they had mauled four pitchers, smashed out sixteen hits, and scored sixteen runs. Of course it may have been coincidence, but the probability is that it was not.

Tyler Christian's first move as manager appears to have been a success. We refer to the switch of Jack Ness from first to second. No one else appears to have thought of putting a long-legged chap like Ness at the keystone sack, but investigation results in the discovery that Ness broke into the game originally as a second sacker playing in the Nebraska State League and other minor organizations in that position.

He appears to have fielded his position there yesterday without any trouble and his presence in the batting order with Rube Gardner certainly added 20 per cent to the slugging power of the Clumbers. If Ness can really play second, then Christian has killed two birds with one stone, for he has found a way not only of plugging up a sad weakness in the defense, but he has learned how to use both Ness and Gardner, a problem which has worried Oakland fans into a state of insomnia. Now, if Tyler can discover now to use both Kayler and Quinlan, Zacher and Middleton, all in the one day, everything will be lovely.

The Coast League directors at a meeting late yesterday voted to put the 20-player limit rule into effect Monday, June 15, to support President Baum in a [illegible] baseball gambling, and to arrange plans for the entertainment in 1915 to delegates to the convention of minor baseball leagues. The 20-player rule does not include manager of a disabled player. The fact that Devlin has been released and Christian made manager, leaves Oakland with only one man over the limit, and it is expected that Roy Crabbe will be the one released. It was either he or Killilay, and Jack saved himself by yesterday's showing.

Twenty-five cent baseball is disappearing throughout the country. With the construction of every new ball park, the four bit patron is being given more and more attention, and his more modest neighbor crowded out into the distant meadows. Increased salaries and expenses are given by magnates as the reason for their concerted effort to meet "the higher cost of baseball."

The new parks at Venice, Oakland and San Francisco have seen the bleacherite crowd out further and further into the horizon, but the same thing is true in the ring one.

Until a few years ago when most of the club owners in the American and National leagues began constructing new stands there were many 25-cent seats.

But since then they have been growing scarcer each year. The old bleacher area in most of the parks has been cut into three parts, the two nearest the home plate selling at 50 cents and only the little stretch that is farthest away from the tallying point being allotted to the "quarter" fans.

The rules of the big leagues provide for 25-cent seats, but they do not specify the number. Because of that little error that would have protected the "lesser" fans the magnates have reduced the bleacher seats from numbers far into the thousands to numbers in the hundreds.

"The things that you do in Kalamazoo, Won't help you a lot in New York."

Calling the Turn, as It Were

(From Monday's TRIBUNE.)

"In fact, we wouldn't be a bit surprised to see the Oaks get behind Jack Killilay some time this week and make more runs than behind any other twirler during the season, thus illustrating the power of mind over matter. The next time Killilay starts there will be a conspiracy on the part of every man jack on the club to put him over the jumps a winner. Not that they haven't been trying behind Killilay before, but the club has permitted itself to believe that Jack was a hard luck pitcher and that they couldn't win behind him. No man ever went into a fight yet believing he was going to lose that his expectations were not fulfilled.

"Now, Tyler Christian is going to try and cure the club of that sort of stuff. Apply a little 'Christian' science so to speak. Here's hoping he succeeds."

WHAT HAPPENED

The Oaks made sixteen runs on sixteen hits behind Killilay yesterday, more than they have made behind any twirler this season.

'BUCK' WEAVER PROVES SUCCESS IN HARRY LORD'S BOOTS

Ex-Seal Given Credit as One of Game's Nervy Heroes.

Buck Weaver, who is well known to Pacific coast fans as formerly playing short for the Seals and who was recently appointed to take the place of Harry Lord, the veteran field captain of the Chicago White Sox, is making good. What is more, he is getting the credit for it from the Sox fans.

This hustling, intrepid field leader of the Sox has impressed the critics similarly wherever Comiskey's men have traveled recently.

"Every time a ball player steps to the plate he is gambling with a fate that may end his career right there," said Matty, and that brings out a strong point in the makeup of the youngest captain in the American league. Weaver knows no fear on the ball field. He hazards an opponent's spikes with the same stoicism as Kid Gleason, and that is nothing less than remarkable.

On June 1 the White Sox were playing one of their famous hard luck games with the Chicago pitcher retiring the opposition scoreless inning after inning, and waiting vainly for a run, a measly tally that the Athletics make as easy as eating their meals. The lad who worked for the Sox that day was Urban Faber who stood before the king of England in a memorable baseball contest in London on the world tour.

For ten long innings the Tigers and [illegible] the score 0 to 0. Something had to be done and Weaver, knowing it was up to somebody to start something, decided to give Faber a little assistance.

BUCK WEAVER TAKES A CHANCE.

Buck picked himself out as the goat. He decided to risk his life, as Matty puts it, and he did this to rescue a slab associate who played with him before long. Weaver decided to get his to "get on" if the hurler pitched wild enough to permit him to do so.

There were two out in the eleventh inning and Weaver was coming up. The score was 0 to 0 and Dauss and Faber were pitching as tight a duel as one would care to see. The crowd was spellbound with interest, the pitchers were working under a strain and the other players were making every effort to give all the assistance at their command. After each half inning Faber and Dauss were applauded as they strolled to their respective dugouts.

TRIES TO SCARE WEAVER.

Dauss started pitching to Weaver and was putting the batter in a hole but that did not daunt the gingery field captain or swerve him from his purpose. Just to scare Buck and drive him away from the plate, Dauss sent a wicked one in close. That was just what Weaver wanted.

After that pitch Weaver lunged toward first and raised his shoulder as though in pain. He had been hit by a wicked shoot. Umpire Dineen motioned him to proceed to first base allowing him the same privilege as Kavanaugh who had worked the same bit of strategy earlier in the contest.

The crowd was relieved to know that Weaver was not seriously injured. The Sox captain sailed to second and was safe on an error, scoring from that station on Hal Chase's drive to left. That tally might have won the game, 1 to 0, had it not been for the home run drive of Sam Crawford, another fellow globe trotter, but that's another story.

CALLAHAN PRAISES WEAVER.

Manager Callahan recently summarized the qualities possessed by Weaver which should make him one of the greatest field captains the game has produced.

"Weaver has skill on the infield second to no other player in the game," said Callahan. "That gives him weight with his companions. He is fearless on the base in sliding and tagging men stealing and also at bat. Weaver doesn't fear an error if he has a chance to save a game. He doesn't work for the percentage but is after the game.

"The Sox captain knows far more baseball than most players of his years, and since becoming captain has tried to help his mates in boosting their play on the field and at bat. This young player has accepted the office of captain as a responsibility and is doing his level best around second and Chase at first we'll start something before long, and the Sox will be up there fighting the first division clubs unless I'm the poorest guesser in the world."

FIRST RACE FOR LIPTON CUP TO BE HELD SATURDAY

On Saturday the first annual Lipton cup race will be run off over the middle channel course a distance of 14 nautical miles. The race will be for yachts in class N, measured under universal rule 31 to 35 feet water line, which includes such fast tricks as the Presto, Mah Pe, Challenger, Yankee, Fulton G, Pronton, Nixie, Alert and Speedwell.

It looks like the Mah Pe with her immense spread of canvas in a moderate breeze, ought to show the way. If the strong channel wind prevails the Presto with the Veteran Stone at the wheel will probably be returned a winner. The Challenger and Yankee have time and again been returned winners over this same course and some surprises may be in store for us. At any rate it will be a race worth going miles to see and will be the most stubbornly fought contest ever held hereabouts.

The cup is a handsome one worth upward of $1000 donated by Sir Thomas Lipton and must be won three times before it becomes the permanent possession of any owner. All races to be held on San Francisco bay.

The regatta will be held under the direction of the Pacific Inter-club Yacht Racing association's regatta committee, consisting of the following: Gus Meloin, Oakland Yacht club, Judge Brown, Vallejo Y. C., Wm. A. Barlage, Corinthian Y. C., I. H. Cary, San Francisco Y. C., J. H. Sutherland, Sausalito Y. C., and W. A. Watson Jr., Aeolian Y. C.

The preparatory signal will be code flag N and one gun at 12:55 and the start one gun at 1 p. m. sharp.

VALLEJO, June 12.—After having gone five years without a defeat, Dan Gillen's Hobeaux were routed at Mare Island Wednesday by the Marine team, the score being 11 to 7 in favor of the navy yar daggregation. Up to the fifth inning the Hobeaux were leading by a score of 2 to 1, but at that stage of the game "Dutch" Lundberg, who had been heaving for Gillen's crew, retired and Pete Hielde rtook the slab. From that time on the Marine shad no trouble scoring. The fielding of the Hobeaux was ragged and the team was further weakened by the absence of Tommy Horan, the regular catcher. Olco ttworked for the Marines and was lucky to get by, his support pulling him out of many tight holes.

Next Sunday the Giants will journey to Vallejo to meet the fast Swastika club of that city. Communicate through Spaulding for games.

ANDREW PROCTOR WINS FROM TAYLOR IN TROPHY SINGLES

The first match of the semi-finals in the Frank Brown singles cup tournament was played off on the Lakeside Park green Wednesday afternoon between James P. Taylor and Andrew Proctor. While Proctor was the winner by a margin of five points he paid the highest compliment to the skill of his opponent, whom he never saw, he said, play so fine a game before during all the many years of their acquaintance on the bowling green. It was one of the closest games played in the various stages of the tournament, the score standing 15 for Taylor, 21 for Proctor at the end of the match.

The details of the score card are herewith presented:

Proctor—
Proctor ....201 022 200 231 010 041 000—21
Taylor ....010 300 012 000 101 100 311—15

The keenness of the contest is shown in the fact that Proctor won on eleven ends and Taylor on ten ends.

One full-handed match—four men in each team playing two bowls per man—was fought out on another rink to a tie on the 21st end, which necessitated the playing of an extra end to determine the supremacy. Throughout the match only two three and two four-point ends were played and honors were even respecting them. The twenty-second end, which was played to break the tie, was the most keenly contested of all in the game and was determined by the play of the skips, the skip of the winning team displacing the nearest bowl of the three lying bowls of his opponents with his first bowl just enough to throw out two counters and with his second bowl driving it out, his own bowl taking its place and thus securing three counters for his own team.

The teams were organized as follows: George B. M. Gray, No. 1; William Paterson, No. 2; James A. Smille, No. 3; Tal. Evans, skip.

Robert Dalziel Sr., No. 1; Dr. E. R. Sill, No. 2; Kenneth Derward, No. 3; Major Henry Hume, skip.

Following was the score:

Evans team—
—140 100 201 000 230 021 101 3—22

Hume team—
—001 012 020 211 002 300 040 0—19

The Evans team won twelve of the 22 ends played, the Hume team ten. The [illegible] was a see-saw until the final tie on the twenty-first end, the Evans team winning the match on the twenty-second end by three points with half a dozen bowls bunched up against the jack.

On Monday afternoon two of the Oakland Scottish Bowling club teams to play the second of the three matches in the tournament for the championship cup against the San Franciscans on Saturday afternoon, June 20, played a regular tournament game (four men each and two bowls to a man) on Lakeside Park green. The teams were in charge of tournament skips, but each team had a substitute for an absent member in the regular organization.

One team was composed of the following players: Dr. E. R. Sill, No. 1; Robert Dalziel Sr. (Sub.) No. 2; Rev. A. Allen, No. 3, and Major Henry Hume, skip.

The other team was represented by George B. M. Gray, No. 1; J. A. C. Macdonald (Sub.), No. 2, T. Evans, No. 3, and James P. Taylor, skip.

Twenty-one ends were played, with the following result:

Taylor team—
301 050 520 301 410 200 210—30

Hume team—
020 604 002 020 004 011 002—24

The match was a remarkable one owing to the high score made by each team, and yet no match ever played on the Lakeside Park green was more closely contested. The rink was in fine condition—keen and true. Every player was in good form, and the bowls at the close of every end throughout the match were bunched together around the jack.

On Tuesday afternoon a three-handed match was played between teams organized by Major Hume and Andrew Proctor. Hume had Dr. E. R. Sill and Rev. Alex. Allen as mates; Proctor had James A. Smille and T. Evans. And every end in this match was closely contested, with close heads and the score at the final of every end being settled by the play of the skips, who were both in superb form. The score was as follows:

Hume team—
301 001 210 200 011 140 201—20

Proctor team—
010 110 002 011 400 001 020—14

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF NAME.

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda.

In the matter of the application of SAN FRANCISCO - OAKLAND TERMINAL RAILWAYS, a corporation, for change of name to THE CALIFORNIA RAILWAYS COMPANY. San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, petitioner. No. 43067. Dept. 1.

Upon reading the verified petition of San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways filed in the above entitled court on the 26th day of May, 1914, praying for a decree changing its name from SAN FRANCISCO - OAKLAND TERMINAL RAILWAYS to THE CALIFORNIA RAILWAYS COMPANY, which said verified petition is in the following words, to-wit:

In the matter of the application of SAN FRANCISCO - OAKLAND TERMINAL RAILWAYS, a corporation, for change of name to THE CALIFORNIA RAILWAYS COMPANY. San Francisco - Oakland Terminal Railways, petitioner. No. 43067. Dept. 1.

The petition of San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways respectfully shows:

That petitioner is a private corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the State of California on the twenty-first day of March, 1912, and that it originally filed its Articles of Incorporation in the office of the Clerk of the County of Alameda, State of California, on said date; that the same were duly recorded by him and that a certified copy thereof was on the twenty-third [illegible] California, that said corporation is located and has its principal place of business in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and the greater part of the property of petitioner is situated in said County of Alameda, State of California;

That the present name of petitioner is SAN FRANCISCO - OAKLAND TERMINAL RAILWAYS and that your petitioner desires to take and assume another name than that now held by it and that the name which it proposes to take and assume is THE CALIFORNIA RAILWAYS COMPANY.

That the grounds of this application for such change of name are as follows, to-wit: The present name is cumbersome and inconvenient in being a hyphenated combination of the names of two cities and suggests the transaction of petitioner's business as between San Francisco and Oakland only, whereas petitioner is engaged extensively in the railway business throughout the County of Alameda and the County of Contra Costa; the proposed name would better suit because petitioner intends to conduct its railway business in various counties of the State of California;

That this petition has been authorized by a resolution passed by a majority vote of its Board of Directors and assented to in writing by stockholders representing over two-thirds of the subscribed capital stock of petitioner; that the number of Directors of said corporation, petitioner herein, is seven, and that a majority of said Directors to-wit: Five have authorized and made and hereby make this application and have signed the same;

That the name proposed to be used by petitioner is not the corporate name of any corporation organized under the laws of this State or under the laws of any other State and doing business within this State, and said name does not so closely resemble the name of any such existing corporation as will tend to deceive.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that this Court make its order appointing a time and place for the hearing of this application and providing for the publication of notice of the time and place of hearing and that upon said hearing its name be changed from SAN FRANCISCO-OAKLAND TERMINAL RAILWAYS to THE CALIFORNIA RAILWAYS COMPANY.

Dated: May 15th, 1914.

It is hereby ordered, that the said verified petition be set for hearing on the 25th day of June 1914 at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, at the courtroom of this court, Department Number 1 thereof, in the Court House situated on Broadway, between Fourth and Fifth streets, in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and that all persons interested in said matter appear before the above entitled court at said time and place to show cause, if any they have, why the said petition should not be granted or to show to the court any objections or good reason against such change of name.

And it is further ordered, that a copy of this order be published for four successive weeks prior to the date set for the hearing of said petition in the Oakland Tribune, a newspaper of general circulation printed in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, where the principal place of business of petitioner is located.

Dated this 26th day of May, 1914.

MISS SARA FERCH, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO JOHN McGREGOR HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED.—Webster Photo.

SOME of the season's brides have gone as far away as Los Angeles and Fort Flagler to live, and Mrs. Edwin Moon Massie, who was Elaine Standish, is in Shanghai. Several are in San Francisco. But most of them are stationed (or will be) in attractive new homes in Oakland or Berkeley.

However, when Miss Evelyn Slater becomes Mrs. Herbert Tweedle she is going into the interior of China with her husband to do missionary and uplift work among the Mongolians, Manchurians or Tartars, as the case may be.

A strange place for a bride to go, who has been used to teas and luncheons, lectures and musicales, and all the culture of a decorous college town. But Miss Slater is enthusiastic over the plan. The barbarians of Manchuria appeal to her as interesting and worthy subjects for missionary endeavor, and Mr. Tweedle feels the same way. He has just completed a civil engineering course at the university and believes his profession will be of practical use in uplifting the Chinese, as it doubtless will.

After the wedding next week Mr. Tweedle and his bride are going east, where the bridegroom will take a summer course in a theological seminary to better fit him for uplift work.

The most remarkable thing about the plan of Miss Slater and Mr. Tweedle is that they might remain agreeably environed in the college town and continue lives of cultured leisure indefinitely. Miss Slater, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan L. Slater, is heiress to quite a fortune and Mr. Tweedle has a share of his father's estate, that of the late Claude Tweedle of England. But the enthusiasm for uplift prevails.

LEAVE FOR THE EAST.

Miss Chester Cunningham, the attractive Eastern girl who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. George Whitney, left for the East this morning, accompanying Mrs. Whitney and her aunt, Mrs. Walter Henry who, with Miss Cunningham, has spent the past two months in California. They have been guests at the Whitney home in Oakland for six weeks, and a number of informal entertainments were given for them. Their home is in Litchfield, Connecticut, where there are many beautiful estates, and where Mrs. Whitney will spend the summer.

Miss Anita Whitney is enjoying the [illegible] Andrew McCreery, after a delightful visit in England with the Richard McCreerys.

IN HONOR OF MISS ALLEN.

Miss Ramona Allen was guest of honor at a bridge party and handkerchief shower given yesterday afternoon at her home in Euclid avenue. Miss Allen's wedding to Joseph Bray will take place early in the fall. Invited to meet her yesterday were Mrs. E. C. Drewes, Mrs. Fletter, Mrs. E. W. Wright, Mrs. R. A. Perry, Miss Edith Woodward, Miss Gertrude Mitchel, Miss Geneva Griswold, Miss Amy Ochs, Miss Carmelita Cuvellier, Miss Irene Gardener, Miss Mabel Mitchner and Miss Mary Ames.

WEDDING PLANS.

The wedding of Miss Nora Thomas and Professor William Bray will take place the last week of June, or early in July. The exact date has not been decided upon. It will be a quiet affair and will probably be celebrated at the home of Professor and Mrs. F. F. Thomas in Dwight way. The family connection is quite a large one so there will be a number of guests included in the invitations to relatives and intimate friends. Miss Thomas is a cousin of Mrs. Conrad Babcock (Gertrude Eels), and Mrs. John Lawson of Burlingame.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.

The announcement that Miss Jessie Hall's engagement to Seldon Brown had been broken, was a surprise to society. Miss Hall had planned a visit to Mr. Brown's parents, Judge and Mrs. Frederick V. Brown of Seattle, but instead she departed for the East a month ago with her mother, Mrs. Jennison Hall. They are en route to California and will arrive at their home in Alameda in a few days, but will leave shortly for a visit to Yosemite.

SUMMER IN SIERRA.

Mrs. Harry Fessenden, with her children, will leave in a week or two for the high Sierras, where they will spend the remainder of the summer at one of the mountain resorts near Dutch Flat. Their home in Euclid avenue will be closed in their absence and Mr. Fessenden will be at the Bohemian Club.

DINNER THIS EVENING.

Benjamin Prince Upham will be guest of honor at a dinner to be given this evening by the Young Turks of the Bohemian Club, who include Spencer Grant, Dan Volkman, William H. Smith Jr., Roy Ryone, Brendon Brady and others. A dinner at the Holluschickie Club next week will be another affair to precede Mr. Upham's marriage to Miss Alysse Warner on the 19th.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Mrs. John Metcalfe and Miss Edith Metcalfe arrived a few days ago from Los Angeles and are at their home in Sixth avenue, San Francisco, where preparations for the wedding of Miss Metcalfe and John Van Cartmell will be made. They had planned a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glass in Berkeley, but decided to go to their San Francisco residence that has been leased for the past six months and has recently been vacated.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENT.

An engagement of interest to Oakland society is that of Miss Florence Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Orr of San Francisco to Virgil Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jorgensen of Yosemite Valley, the former of whom is one of the noted artists of California.

Miss Orr is a graduate of Stanford of the class of 1912 and her fiance is a University of California graduate. He is a brother of Miss Aimee Jorgensen, who is a favorite in Oakland society, and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Higgins of Piedmont.

The announcement was made at a tea given by Miss Betty Funston of San Francisco who was maid of honor at the recent wedding of Miss Julia Moore and Sidney Lawrence. The wedding will take place on July 15, and the young couple are to depart soon afterward for Europe where Jorgensen will pursue his architectural studies at the Beaux Arts in Paris.

MISS OGDEN ENTERTAINED.

Miss Rosalie Ogden, the charming fiancee of Russell Cooley, was guest of honor at a bridge luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Walter Curtis Palmer (Anabel Root) at her home in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer whose wedding was an event of the early spring, are occupying an attractive apartment in Hyde street, near Sacramento.

The luncheon was a prettily appointed affair for a dozen guests.

GIVES LUNCHEON.

Mrs. George K. Ford was hostess at a luncheon given early in the week at her attractive home in Grand avenue. The table was prettily decorated in a color scheme of lavendar and white, with sweet peas and roses. Several guests from San Francisco were among those entertained, who included Mrs. T. J. Pearce, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Paul Bender, Mrs. A. O. Smith, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Arthur Holmes, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Clifford Bacon, Miss Grace Jackson and Miss Blanche Bonham.

SUMMER PLANS.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Paul are planning a delightful summer outing in the Feather river country where they will spend a month at Mohawk. They will leave about June 22.

Mrs. Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Orr, are going to Tahoe later in the summer.

AT CORONADO.

Mrs. Andrew M. Davis and Miss Helen Davis of Berkeley are spending the month of June at Coronado. Later in the season they are planning a trip to the mountains.

ANNOUNCEMENT AT CARD PARTY.

The engagement of Miss Jessie Antone to Elwood Sunkler was announced Monday at a card party given by Mrs. S. J. Antone, in her daughter's honor. Miss Antone is an accomplished girl who has many friends to wish her happiness.

Her fiancee is a young business man of Oakland where the young couple will make their home after the wedding in September.

Several hundred invitations have been sent out, but the dance will be delightfully informal. There will be effective decorations of the club's colors. Those who have charge of arrangements for the dance are:

Miss Esther Rehl, Miss Edna Swartz, Miss Hazel Dutton, Miss Agnes Fosen, Miss Ethel Orvig, Miss Miriam Myers, Miss Effie Hatcher, Miss Callie Bachic, Miss Edna Hartwell, Miss Ruth Hughes, Miss Martha Smith, Miss Estelle Wayne, Miss Teresa Smith, Miss Helen Peterson, Miss Nell Orr, Miss Edith Wedgewood, Miss Elenor Mulvany, Miss Amelia Bachich, Miss Etta Ackerman and Miss Pauline Samson.

The graduating class of the Prescott school of June, 1914, spent one of the most enjoyable evenings of the term at a graduation farewell party which was given at the home of Evelyn Sicotte.

Games were played and the music was supplied by Miss Genevieve Smith, to which the group danced and sang the latest songs.

About 10 o'clock supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated in pink and green, the graduating class colors.

The graduates were as follows:

SCHOOLS HAVE VARIED GRADUATION EXERCISES

Following the custom of years, the girls of the graduating class of the Cole and Durant grammar schools, designed their own graduating dresses. Forty girls and boys of the Cole school completed their course while about 81 were graduated from the Durant school.

Class songs were sung in the Cole school, where the pupils closed the entertainment with the selection, "The Day is Over." Among those who took part were Fred Eklund, Adalon Corbell, Henry Gosch, Margaret Dallamore, Donald Johnson, Myra Semmer, Gertrude Bilkey, Henrietta Brill, Iola Hamilton, Stoessle Cinnamond, George Kafouri.

The Durant school class was addressed by Principal S. G. S. Imbar. The officers of the class were George Andrews, president; Eugene Ebey, vice-president; Carlton Hayhurst, secretary, and Mr. Freeman, master-at-arms.

Pledged to the class motto, "Onward and Upward Is Our Aim," the members of the graduating class of the Jefferson school of Oakland bade god-bye to their mates. The newly organized orchestra of the school assisted at the exercises, when the following program was given by the pupils:

ADOLPH FREDERICK DEAD IN BERLIN

Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Strolitz, Son of Frederick William, Expires.

BERLIN, June 12.—Grand Duke Adolph Frederick of Mecklenburg Strelitz died today.

Grand Duke Adolph Frederick was born in 1848, the son of Grand Duke Frederick William, whom he succeeded as reigning grand duke on the latter's death in 1904 and Princess Augusta, the daughter of the late Duke Adolphus of Cambridge.

In 1907 the grand duke announced that he would grant a Constitution to the duchy but this met with much opposition from the nobles, and later he offered to make a free gift of $2,500,000 to the national treasury of his grand duchy if the nobles who constituted the majority of the diet would abandon their opposition to the grant of a constitution similar to that of the other sovereign states of the German empire.

A form of constitutional government, it is understood, is now about to be introduced.

PUTS HEN TO WORK.

COLUMBUS, June 12.—The state of Ohio has put the hen to work. She will aid in the fight to prevent the extinction of pheasants in Ohio by hatching out baby pheasants and being a foster mother to them as long they will stay with her. Hundreds of dozens of eggs have been shipped to game clubs throughout the state with instructions to have them set under hens. Club-owners and members are told that hens will not hesitate to hatch [illegible] baby pheasants, however, are rather fickle. They will stay with their foster mothers only long enough to learn to fly.

Madame Isebell's Beauty Lesson

LESSON XI—PART IV.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

A Veteran Actress.

The veteran actress, Sarah Bernhardt, born in 1846, is a wonderful example of the effect of well-directed physical exercises on the body. Madame Bernhardt's body is still young and lithe in its movement; it is not the physique of a young girl, but it is far from being the physique that we associate with a woman past sixty. She has a perfect carriage. She has never allowed any accumulation of flesh on any part of her body and she can play young roles today simply because her body can still respond to youthful enthusiasm. She is the example of a woman who has never deviated one moment from the laws of physical health. She has always been a great believer in [illegible] an excellent exercise for keeping limbs supple and the movements quick. She has treated her physique intelligently, understanding what it needed, building up when necessary and reducing excess flesh as soon as there was any hint of its appearance.

BAD HABITS.

As Madame Bernhardt has always trained her body since youth she has had no bad habits to overcome. She is an example of a physical training that never "lets up." At the same time hers is not a temperament or physique inclined to grow very stout. What she has to combat as years go on is stiffness—lack of grace or vigor. Women who do not accumulate flesh as they grow older are apt to think this fact sufficient to give them a youthful appearance. This is not always so; there is a stiff, angular middle age quite as unlovely as too much fat. At this period there is also a tendency towards rounding the back, dropping the figure into the waistline, becoming shorter and less erect—all bad habits that can be avoided by proper, regular physical exercises.

THE YOUNG HOUSEKEEPER.

To suggest physical culture to the housekeeper and mother may seem at first almost cruelty, the adding of another burden to an already too full day and to muscles already overtaxed. Yet this busy, hard-worked housewife does need a certain amount and kind of physical culture to bring vigor and elasticity to her movements, and to exercise unused muscles so they may aid and help out those which at present seem too much used.

She can at least devote a few minutes each day to restful physical culture. If she can do no more, night and morning, let her go through the series of breathing exercises outlined in Lesson X. This will accomplish at least two things; invigorate the blood so that the bodily tissues are promptly renewed, and teach correct poise so that she gets profit and not weariness from her daily tasks. Housework, is excellent physical culture, if it is properly done.

Lesson IX to be continued.

HAILSTONES FOOT DEEP AFTER CANADIAN STORM

OXBOW, Sask., Canada, June 12.—After a windstorm of almost cyclonic proportions, accompanied by downpours of hail and rain, the ground in this vicinity was covered by a layer of hail stones one foot deep. The drifts of ice prevented all travel, until after they had melted or washed away.

GIANT REDWOODS MAY GROW IN NORTH

OROVILLE, June 12.—In the centuries that are yet to come Butte and Plumas counties may be noted as the home of giant redwood trees, outrivaling those of the Santa Cruz mountains or the Calaveras grove. For some time the adaptability of this section of the Sierra for redwood culture has been a mooted point among forest officials.

To decide this point an experimental planting of redwood has been made at a point near Quincy. The trees planted are of the species of Sequota Washingtonia, which is closely related to the Sequoia gigantea. The trees are reported to be thriving lustilly, and while it is yet a little early to predict just how the infants will turn out, the forest officials at least are greatly pleased at the prospect.

INJURED WOMAN IS TAKEN HOME

Mrs. J. W. Aldrich Incurred Her Hurts When Horse Ran Away.

Mrs. J. W. Aldrich, field secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions of Oakland, who was injured in a runaway accident at Corning yesterday, was able to be removed to her home at 2207 Tenth avenue, East Oakland, where she is confined to her bed. Her injuries, while painful, are not considered dangerous. A dislocated elbow, bruised limbs and a sprained wrist constitute her injuries, but Mrs. Aldrich expects to be about in a few days.

Her escape from more serious injuries is miraculous considering the circumstances.

The Rev. J. C. Linninger, Presbyterian minister at Kirkwood, was taking Mrs. Aldrich to Corning to attend a meeting. Just as the two arrived the horse took fright and ran away.

Mr. Linninger, who had taken the bridle to get it repaired, was holding the ... was still in the buggy. Mr. Linninger was dragged for a couple of blocks and is feared may be suffering from internal injuries.

Mrs. Aldrich, although having no lines to guide the frightened animal, showed remarkable presence of mind, clinging to the rig until the buggy struck a pole and she was thrown to the ground.

Militants Set Fire To Ancient Church

LONDON, June 12.—A determined attempt was made by militant suffragettes this morning to burn the ancient church of St. Margaret's, at Chipstead fourteen miles southeast of London. Three distinct fires, fed by fire lighters composed of squares of felt saturated with oil were set by the "arson squad."

The rector, Rev. W. H. Stone, and the villages extinguished the flames before much damage had been done. The church dates from the Twelfth Century.

He was secretary of the State senate in 1883 and was the opponent of J. P. Cook for clerk of Alameda county in 1910. He was formerly owner of the Watsonville Pajaronian.

WHEAT MARKET FEELS REACTION

After Four Days' Decline Rally Is Brought About With a Substantial Advance.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Belief that after four days' decline a reaction was due helped bring about a rally today in wheat. The opening, which was ⅛c off to ¼@⅜c up, was followed by a substantial advance all around.

Fear of rain damage in the harvest districts cut a good deal of figure. Later, however, selling out of a line held by a firm which suspended had considerable to do with causing a decline.

The Lorimer bank troubles, too, were taken advantage of by the bear side. Closing prices were steady, ⅜@½c under last night.

After starting unchanged to ⅛c lower, the corn market steadied close to last night's level.

Speculative selling based on state bank difficulties led afterward to a renewal of weakness. The close was steady, ⅛@⅛c under last night.

Notwithstanding that the breaking of the drought had some bearish effect on oats, the effect was not of a lasting sort.

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE HAS HIGH PLACE IN CITY'S LIFE

Institution Has Had Useful Career Since Modest Beginning; Quality in Eatables and Wearables

(By BETTY MARTIN.)

Every city of any considerable size in the United States maintains a "Woman's Exchange." Oakland has one—in fact, has had one for the last score or more of years. Many people are not aware of this fact. Others have known all about it from its inception, now pretty much a matter of ancient history. It started out very modestly, did this Oakland's Woman's Exchange, on Twelfth street, near Clay. For the last four years it has occupied commodious quarters in the Thayer building, 573 Fourteenth street. [illegible] changes of location meant progress in some way or other.

From the beginning, luncheons were featured which soon became popular—so popular that patrons have followed from place to place, attesting thereby the excellence of the cuisine. The four o'clock tea is much enjoyed by shoppers for "afternoon tea" is almost as popular in [illegible] tables linen and dainty china. Another departure, and one highly appreciated has recently been made. From eight o'clock every morning until eleven, breakfast can be had. A breakfast so much like "the home kind," as to be almost identical. Fruit, a cereal, hot muffins and what not, beside a fragrant cup of coffee are to be had at reasonable rates and well-served, for efficiency is demanded of all employees. The standard of wages, in keeping with the standard excellence maintained throughout, is high.

[illegible] varied whole of the Exchange work. Home-made edibles of every description are sold over the counter. Hot biscuits, pies like "mother used to make," crisp crullers, old fashioned doughnuts, cakes that melts in one's mouth, home-made candies—all these and more are to be had for the buying. Orders are taken here for sandwich es, wedding and engagement cakes—in fact, any good thing in the line of edibles that a customer wants to pay.

NOT SOLELY CULINARY.

Then there's the art department, which includes all sorts of needle-work as well as brush. Dainty garments for women and children, baby clothes, fancy work, anything and everything imaginable in the way of needle work, all are on sale. In fact, the work of the Exchange covers a wide range. Much wider, in fact, than might be surmised from a casual inspection. It touches many lives at many angles, and is the medium whereby dozens of women in reduced circumstances are enabled to earn a livelihood. The majority of the consignors are widows, some of them with families to support—many with dependants too ill to leave alone. These consignors get eighty-five per cent of the profits realized from a sale of their consignments, the remaining 15 going toward defrayment of current expenses of the Exchange.

Mrs. Easley, the general superintendent, and the housekeeper, Mrs. Gould, who has charge of the kitchen and dining-room have been connected with the work for years.

Purely philanthropical in scope, the Woman's Exchange is conducted on strictly business principles. From among the membership, the board of twenty-nine managers are chosen, and, from this board, in turn, a board of directors are chosen. Also, in this connection are a number of committees.

The purchasing committee, which attends to the linen, stationary supplies and other like lines, is comprised of Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Mrs. William Letts Oliver, and Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts.

Mrs. A. T. Brock and Mrs. E. M. Gibson constitute the art committee; Mrs. G. Vanderspeereboom attends to the auditing, the food committee consists of Mrs. W. O. Badgley and Mrs. C. D. Vincent. These ladies have to see that all consignments are up to standard.

The pantry committee attends to the buying of supplies. For many years this was a committee of one—Miss A. G. Wilkinson. Now, however, Mrs. W. S. Palmer assists in this work.

The ladies of the Exchange are particularly proud of their kitchen which is modeled largely after that of the Bohemian Club in San Francisco, and has everything imaginable in the way of modern conveniences.

The handsome percolators, too, wherein afternoon coffee is made, are duplicates of those used by the Bohemians. Best of all the kitchen is spotless. It is clean beyond words.

In connection with the Exchange, the adjacent tea-room with its quaint air and [illegible] source of revenue. Here private bridge parties are often given, and here, too, a wedding is occasionally celebrated.

Three association meetings, numbering from forty-two to sixty people each, gathered about luncheon tables at the Exchange within the last two weeks. The Dental Society met here, among others.

One hundred ladies, more or less, belong to the Exchange, and nearly every name on the list is recognizable because of the interest taken in philanthropical affairs.

These ladies are always giving, without receiving one penny of money in return. They are prodigal of their time and take personal interest in all matters relative to the work.

Working with them when needed is an Advisory Board, consisting of Mr. M. C. Chapman, Mrs. E. P. Stone and Mr. W. M. Alexander. Mrs. Phoebe R. Hearst, Mrs. A. M. Moran, Mrs. E. M. Walsh, Mrs. T. L. Barker and Mrs. Wallace M. Alexander are life members of the Woman's Exchange of this city, of which Mrs. W. E. Sharon was president for a period of seven years. Mrs. Lillian Brown Everets has served, with singular success, in a like capacity for four terms. Mrs. C. W. Randall being the present incumbent.

Mrs. W. E. Sharon is first vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Sharon; second vice-president, Mrs. Henry Burns; treasurer, Mrs. William Letts Oliver; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert Stewart; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank L. Adams, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Mrs. W. O. Badgley, Mrs. C. D. Vincent, Miss Antoinette G. Wilkinson and Mrs. E. C. Moonson.

The Board of Directors held their last meeting for the season on Wednesday last, transacting much important business, when an adjournment, as customary, was taken until September.

FOR EARLY FALL

A number of affairs are planned by the California Writers' Club, to take place in the early fall, and all toward one end, the building of a club house.

Mrs. Leigh Richmond Smith, chairman of the reception committee, and Mrs. Elsie R. Osgood will give a musical and dramatic tea early in September, so it has been announced.

Mrs. Woodson Allen intends to follow up this tea by an "Oriental" evening. As Mrs. Allen is the chairman of the dramatic section of the club, something out of the ordinary is to be expected.

Miss Ruth Farley, chairman of the Book Review section, has selected a play as the medium whereby the club funds are to wax fat.

With so much talent and such a vigorous campaign, the success of the project is a foregone conclusion.

Mrs. Hamilton Young, a Los Angeles member, will shortly issue a book under the auspices of the writers. This book is entitled "The Gift Cup; a Lotus-Time Love Story."

Mrs. Bessie Thew Miller, also of the southern city, has contributed a monologue—which passed the critics—to the Dramatic Sections book of sketches and monologues.

All of which goes to show that the members of this club know the value of work.

UTAH COMBINES TO DEFEAT SMOOT

Democrats and Progressives Nominate State Ticket at Separate Conventions.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 12.—With the avowed intent to defeat Senator Reed Smoot for re-election, the Democratic and Progressive state conventions, held separately here yesterday, combined on a state ticket, nominating James H. Moyle of Salt Lake, Democrat, for the Senate; James H. Hays of Salt Lake and Lewis Larson of Manti, Progressives, for representatives. Both conventions nominated Dr. E. G. Gowans of Ogden, superintendent of the state industrial school, as a non-partisan candidate for superintendent of public instruction.

Moyle is an attorney and is also heavily interested in wool, beet sugar and other local industries. He has twice been Democratic candidate for governor. He is a vigorous supporter of the Wilson administration and in the face of great opposition appeared before the National Wool Growers' convention here a few months ago, to attack a resolution which he regarded as an unjust reflection on the administration. Stephens is a well-known attorney and is a personal friend of Secretary Bryan, the acquaintance dating to their youth. Hays is a coal operator, Larson is an attorney and Gowans is a physician.

The platform adopted are similar in demanding stringent election laws, a public utilities commission, reform of taxation system, workmen's compensation law, national equal suffrage, municipal ownership of public utilities, state employment bureau and referendum on the liquor question. The Democrats endorse the acts of the national administration, including its Mexican policy.

The Progressives adopted unanimously a resolution commending the Salt Lake Commercial Club traffic bureau in its request to the governor to investigate the Union Pacific special dividend of $80,000,000 with a view to preventing the proposed distribution, if possible.

TWENTY MEN CAUGHT IN CAVE-IN; 1 KILLED

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—Twenty laborers were caught in a cave-in yesterday afternoon at Forty-fifth street and Compton avenue, one being killed outright. Another was buried under tons of earth and finally rescued. The others fought their way to safety.

A thousand persons assembled while policemen and firemen attempted the rescue of Joseph Lasich by throwing a network of heavy timbers over the crushed man to prevent more earth from falling on him.

A. Gayisch, a contractor on the sewer work, at the risk of his life, descended into the pit and dug the sand and gravel from about the form of Lusich. Then he staggered out of the hole with the injured man in his arms.

VALLEJO NEWS

PRISON SHIP WILL BE TAKEN TO S. F.

New Owner of Former Spanish Vessel Coming to Claim It.

MARE ISLAND, June 12. — J. W. Strong of New Orleans has informed Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., of Mare Island, that he will arrive at the yard some time next week to take the old prison ship Manila, which he has bought, to San Francisco. The vessel was one of the Spanish vessels captured by the American navy in Manila bay. It is likely that the Manila will be exhibited at San Francisco during the Panama-Pacific exposition. If not, she will be taken around to the east coast by way of the Panama canal during the fall months.

The collier Nero is on her way up the coast from Mazatlan, Mexico, to secure fuel and supplies for the vessels of the Pacific patrol squadron. The Nero is due to arrive at California City during the next few days.

Paymaster J. Brooks, U. S. N., Mare Island's new pay officer, is quite well known on this coast. He was on duty here 11 years ago and he has been kept [illegible] busy the past few days renewing old acquaintances both on Mare Island and in Vallejo.

Owing to the fact that the stay of the Japanese naval officers at San Francisco is limited, none of the officials will be able to come to Mare Island to visit Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., according to word received at the navy yard today.

The cruiser St. Louis leaves dock No. 2 at Mare Island this afternoon and will anchor in Carquinez straits. On Saturday the crew will take on some ammunition before the man-of-war proceeds to Yerba Buena.

The army troopship Sheridan, with 194 sailors and marines on board, is due to arrive at San Francisco next Sunday. The men will be brought up to the yard on Sunday by the tug Iroquois.

Forty-six prisoners left Mare Island yesterday for Bremerton.

Information was received at the yard today that the gunboat Vicksburg has been ordered to proceed from San Diego to Bremerton to be placed out of commission.
